

SESSION IS OVER; BILLS WAIT FOR SIGNATURE

All Measures for Which the Call Was Issued Are Passed by Administration Party Slate

PROTEST IS LODGED BY BILL OPPONENTS

Governor Said to Have Invaded Legislative Branch in Statement Signed by Senators

HOW THEY VOTED

This is how the Alameda County delegation in the Senate voted on the primary bill:
NOC—BANS.
AYES—BREED, STROBRIDGE, TYRRELL.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 11.—After remaining in session seven days both houses of the legislature voted this morning to adjourn the extraordinary session sine die at 12 noon today. The resolution to adjourn was offered last night by Senator Strobridge of Alameda county and was adopted then by the Senate. The Assembly adopted it today.

The legislature today finished up the formalities attendant upon the passage of the bills contained in the governor's official call.

The business transacted by the legislature during this session consisted in the passage of the following bills: An amendment to the direct primary law of 1913, providing declaration of party affiliation at the polls.

An amendment to the presidential primary law making it conform with the non-partisan registration law. This includes a call for the primary election and thus is an urgency measure.

Bills to provide for the purchase of the California building site at the exposition for use as a San Francisco normal school, the funds to come from the state's share of the profits of the exposition.

Bills to provide for the continuance of the San Diego Exposition through-out 1916 and an appropriation of $50,000 out of the Panama-Pacific Exposition funds.

The cost of the legislature, including per diem for the members and attaches, mileage and incidental expenses is $15,814.80; $9289.60 for the Assembly, $5025.30 for the Senate and $1500 for printing.

The Senate passed both the direct primary and presidential primary laws as amended by a vote of 25 to 3 and the Assembly then passed the direct primary law as amended by the Senate by a vote of 58 to 9. This action was taken without discussion.

After a day of discussion the Assembly last night passed the San Francisco normal bill and the two San Diego exposition bills. The Assembly spent the day in arguing upon the advisability of housing the San Francisco normal in the California building at the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

Francisco led the opposition, but when the main bill came to a vote it carried, 52 to 18. The other two normal bills went through, 56 to 13 and 55 to 12. These provide for the condemnation of streets and the appropriation of state profits from the exposition to the normal school.

There was no opposition to the San Diego Exposition measure.

After a day spent in wrangling the Senate passed the direct primary law and presidential primary laws as amended by a vote of 25 to 3. The vote on the direct primary law follows:
AYES—Benson, Birdsall, Breed.

Hernandez Raids Mexican Property

EL PASO, Jan. 11.—General Rosillo Hernandez, the Villa general who recently revolted from the Carranza ranks after receiving amnesty, is destroying property in the state of Coahuila. He has received forty men, according to reports received here today.

Mexican consular advisers said that the recent Aguirre invasion of Gomez Palacio had been driven back by the Durango hills and wire and rail communication restored.

Berlin's Loss in Men 232,547 Since War

BERLIN, Jan. 11.—The latest census reports show that Berlin's male population has decreased by 232,547 since July, 1914, due chiefly to the calling of the men to the army. In females, however, the population is strongly increasing. The population of Berlin today is 1,847,565, as against the high water mark of 2,095,030 in 1912 and 1,995,806 at the outbreak of the war.

POSTAL CLERKS TURN GYMNASTS STAMP FEET AND ENVELOPES FEDERAL FLIPFLAPS IN ORDER

RELIEF FROM DESK WORK STRAIN GAINED

Calisthenics Now Part of Routine at the Oakland Postoffice.

The Swedish movement is a great accelerator of the letter carrier's trot, and Sandow's exercises stimulate action on the stamp-canceling machine. The clerks make husky workers at the postoffice desks, counters and muscular hands now propel the pens that used to move—oh, ever so slowly, in inditing Uncle Sam's official business.

Gymnastics and postoffice work go hand in hand in Oakland. Every day the postal clerks take time off to go through their exercises, which are as much a part of the official duties of the department now as the regular work of getting out the people's letters.

All they lack is music for their calisthenics. The postmaster J. J. Rosborough, who originated the "gymnastic postal system," is a melodious whistler, but he's too busy thinking up more efficiency plans to whistle around the postoffice. It may be that a phonograph will later be added to the postal machinery as a first aid to official efficiency.

Every day the "desk men" in the postoffice are called to their gymnastics. A bell rings, and the leader puts them through six strenuous minutes' exercise. According to the postmaster, this has increased efficiency a hundred fold. In his official report mailed to Washington this week, and containing a summary of the past three months' work, he says:

"Realizing for some time that the employees in the directory department, in the clerical department and attention to their duties, I have had them sit at their desks for lunch from the time they sat down in the morning until they finished their work at night, were being hampered in their efficiency by lack of exercise and fresh air. I have, therefore, instituted a combination of 'setting up' exercises and calisthenics in that department. At 3 o'clock every afternoon a bell is rung, and the employees are called to a given place on the floor and a leader puts them through a series of vigorous physical exercises, while the windows have been thrown open to allow free ventilation. This requires about six minutes each day and has added notably to the effectiveness in the work of that department."

Other salient features of his report are: "During the Christmas season just past the Oakland postoffice has broken all records both as to receipts and quantity of mail handled. Compared with 1914, the sale of stamps this year had increased $12,619.86, while the increase for the month of December alone over last year has been $14,143.34. On the 21st of December of this year we sold $5,711 worth of stamps, which is nearly $1000 more than the corresponding day of last year. The canceling machine installed in this office has a maximum capacity of 30,000 letters an hour. On our biggest day, the Thursday preceding Christmas, the recording mechanism showed that over 200,000 letters and cards had been run through the machine, and over a million during the Christmas week of five days.

"As we have already installed the two-divison plan in the Oakland postoffice, we put into effect the 'ABC' system during the Christmas holidays, which proved an immense success on account of there being some forty or more new and inexperienced clerks distributing mail.

"During the first ten days in December there was held in the million-dollar civic auditorium a women's household show, which was visited by approximately 25,000 people. We succeeded in securing through a donation from the management a space of 30 feet long and 10 feet wide for exhibition purposes.

EXHIBIT SPONSORED. "On January 1, 1916, we took over the San Leandro postoffice, which is now a branch of Oakland, and from a third-class office it has been converted into an independent branch of the Oakland postoffice, with three city carriers and one rural carrier.

"In preparation for an anticipation of an unusually large postal business, we leased a portion of the Sixteenth street station depot from the Southern Pacific Railway Company. This brought the postoffice directly to the railway and saved a doubling handling of the mail. As proof of the success of this scheme it is only necessary to state that we handled as high as 1000 sacks of mail a day out of this station, requiring the services of ten clerks.

"The equipment in use up to December 10, 1915, in the general collection and parcel post delivery service being in such an unsightly and unserviceable condition, upon authority obtained from the department, new equipment was secured.

HERTZA DYING. EL PASO, Jan. 11.—Gen. Victoriano Huerta's condition was described as "unchanged" early today. His physician added that the former president of Mexico was becoming weaker. Slight hopes are entertained for his recovery.

WOMAN SAVES LIFE BY NERVE IN CRISIS

Mrs. L. Root Uses Diplomacy to Escape Dangerous Situation.

It was through the diplomacy of Mrs. L. Root, a clerk in a loan office at 1123 Broadway, this city, that she and her woman assistant did not suffer the fate of Miss Rose Rea and Miss Amelia von Blomberg, who were shot and seriously wounded, the latter probably fatally, by two negroes in San Francisco Saturday afternoon.

This was learned today following the arrest in San Francisco last night of Ebenezer Morris, a Jamaica negro, and Leonard Lindsey, also a Jamaica native, both of whom have confessed to the murderous assault upon the two women, who are employees of the Employees' Credit Company, with offices in the Monadnock building. The two have confessed that they had planned a hold-up of the place and had visited the Oakland loan office an hour earlier with the same end in view.

FRENCH WIN CHAMPAGNE FRONT FIGHT

Artillery Active and the Counter-Attacks Are Repelled

German Statement and That From Paris Do Not Agree

PARIS, Jan. 11.—The French official report today states that the German offensive, undertaken on Sunday in Champagne by at least three German divisions, was a complete failure, the Germans being driven out of all the positions which they had seized, with the exception of a small rectangle to the west of Matsons de Champagne. The statement follows: "Between the rivers Somme and Oise our artillery has been active. An enemy detachment attempted to carry one of our positions in the sector of Amancourt, in the region of Reims. It was repulsed by our fire. West of Soissons our trench guns destroyed a depot of rockets in the neighborhood of Autreppeux.

ACROPLANES EIGHT. "The latest information received from Champagne confirms the fact that our artillery fire, our trench defenses and our counter attacks completely nullified an important attack undertaken by the enemy in which at least three German divisions took part. Counter attacks and hand-to-hand fighting by our men during the past night drove the enemy from the outpost positions he had occupied. With our aircraft yesterday in several flights above the German lines near Dixmude, with enemy scouting aeroplanes of the Fokker type. One of our machines attacked by a Fokker machine had to descend, but an enemy airship attacked in turn by one of ours, which shot it down from a distance of twenty-five meters, was brought down. A third French machine also attacked another Fokker, which fell in the forest of Mouthuist, southeast of Dixmude."

PRISONERS TAKEN. BERLIN, Jan. 11.—The official war office statement says that the French troops in the Champagne were defeated in an effort to recapture the trenches northeast of Massiges, taken by the Germans in the offensive movement started yesterday. The number of prisoners taken has been increased to 350.

A French battle aeroplane armed with thirty-eight centimeter guns was compelled by German fire to land near Wismes, south of Dixmude, in Belgium. The airship and its occupants, uninjured, are in German hands.

A British biplane was shot down in an aerial encounter near Tournai, Belgium.

"GREAT VICTORY." "Progressivism has won a great victory. It has grasped the minds of individual voters, has quickened the national conscience and has been indelibly impressed upon every forward looking stage.

AGED WOMAN DIES FROM HER BURNS

BERKELEY, Jan. 11.—For a frantic five minutes Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Hodge of 2226 Chapel street struggled last evening to put out the flames which leaped from an overturned oil stove and succeeded in doing so only after Mrs. Hodge had received burns so serious that she died this morning from their effect and Hodge himself had also been painfully burned about the hands and arms.

The Hodges, each over 60 years of age, came to Berkeley recently and made their home in the residence of Mrs. William Herrod. Last evening Hodge left the house for five minutes and during his absence Mrs. Hodge lighted the oil stove which served to heat their apartments.

As she did so she accidentally overturned the heater, spilling oil upon her clothing and the floor. The former caught fire and in a moment she was enveloped by flames. Fearful that the stove would set the house afire, Mrs. Hodge rushed to her husband and started to carry it out as her husband re-entered. He extinguished the flames on the floor, took the stove from her and carried it outside. He then hastened back to his wife's assistance.

He found her writhing with agony on the floor. She had attempted to smother flames in her clothing by rolling on the carpet after having poured over herself in vain a pan of water. Hodge succeeded in beating out the fire, despite that his own hands were fearfully burned, and later summoned Dr. A. J. Sanderson, professor of El Reposo Sanatorium, a few doors away.

Dr. Sanderson labored for hours to save the woman's life, but in vain. She died in the early hours of this morning. Hodge's injuries were also dressed by Dr. Sanderson and have not yet proved serious.

Mrs. Hodge, whose name was Della Frances, was 61 years of age and was born in Vermont, where with her husband she formerly resided. For the past ten years she had lived in California, coming to Berkeley a little less than two years ago. Her husband had no regular employment, but has been doing odd jobs in the neighborhood. There are no children. Funeral services are to be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at (Gorman & Sons' parlors.

CLINTON DAY DROPS DEAD IN HOME

BERKELEY, Jan. 11.—Clinton Day, one of the best-known architects of the West and one of the earliest graduates of the University of California, dropped dead of heart disease this morning at his residence at Bancroft way and Piedmont avenue. He had been ill for several days and under the care of Dr. Clark Burroughs. Day has been a resident of California since 1885 and had lived since 1878 in Berkeley. He was the grandson of Jeremiah Day, for thirty years president of Yale University.

His father was Sherman Day, former state senator of California and surveyor general of the United States, who built the first roadway across the continent to California. Day was born March 17, 1847, at Brooklyn, New York, and was brought to California by his father when 5 years old. His father was one of the founders of the University of California, which was converted into the University of California, and from this earlier institution Clinton Day was graduated in 1868 in his fifth class with the degree of Bachelor of Arts, one year before the institution was moved to Berkeley. In 1874 he took his Master's degree and in 1910 the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws was conferred upon him by the regents of the university.

MEXICANS KILL 15 AMERICANS IN COLD BLOOD

Mining Men Are Taken From Train and Shot to Death.

EL PASO, Tex., Jan. 11.—Fifteen Americans were murdered, robbed and stripped of clothing and a ton-load of provisions and money was looted by bandits under General Jose Rodriguez at Kilometer 68 of the Mexican Northwestern Railroad, west of Chihuahua, according to one American on the train who escaped, reached Madera and wired today to the American Smelter and Refining Company representatives here.

Immediately after confirmation of the message reached this city a consignment on further information was imposed either at Juarez or Chihuahua City.

All of the Americans were employees of the Chihuahua Mining Company, one of the subsidiaries of the American Smelter and Refining Company. They were en route to open the plant under the promise of military protection made by the Mexican government to the state department.

Efforts to secure further information from the interior of Chihuahua, officials of the American Smelter and Refining Company said, were hampered by a censorship at Juarez.

The names of Americans on the train compiled here follows: C. L. Watson, W. J. Wallace, M. B. Romero, C. M. Evans, C. A. Bimble, M. A. Anderson, R. E. Macchattin, E. L. Robinson, R. H. Seamon and the following whose initials were not known here: "Coy, Hall, Wattleigh, Newman, Hand, Blom, or Blum, and Anders.

C. L. Watson is the general manager and principal owner of the Chihuahua Mining Company, operating in the district of that name, which is in Western Chihuahua, on the branch of the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient line connecting with the Mexican Northwestern at La Junta.

"There is a crying need that we shall cast aside all purely partisan considerations and disregard all but the vital issues affecting the national life and shall strive wholeheartedly for a sound Americanism which shall insist that every man who is within our borders shall be an American and nothing else. . . . We must do justice to our own people at home; we must insist that they have justice who abroad."

"We must insist upon the most thorough-going preparedness to protect our rights against all possible attacks by any aggressors. Such preparedness is the best guarantee of an honorable peace. . . . We must not ever remember that there cannot be such preparedness in things material unless there also is that preparedness of soul and spirit, which alone renders a nation fit to perform its high and difficult duties in national and international life."

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT." In his message to the committee Governor Johnson of California said:

"GREAT VICTORY." "Progressivism has won a great victory. It has grasped the minds of individual voters, has quickened the national conscience and has been indelibly impressed upon every forward looking stage.

"The men and the party, unafraid, have exercised a most wholesome influence on the nation's political life. All candidates and all parties now vehemently protest they are progressive."

Withhold 'Mr.' To Stop Hazing

School Superintendent Has Suggestion

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—Treating boys and girls in high school as though they were men and women, and their desire to imitate the customs and habits of university students are responsible for the evils of hazing as well as for the privilege of societies, according to theories advanced at the investigation before the board of education today. It was Superintendent of Schools Alfred Roncovieri who suggested the remedy to Principal Frank Morton of the Lowell High School, where Irving McKnight met his injury on Friday.

"I want to say to you, Mr. Morton," Roncovieri said, "that if you instructed your teachers to stop 'hazing' your pupils and call them Tom, Dick or Harry, and consider them little boys, as they really are, all this foolishness would stop."

A desire to imitate college lads was also given as the basic cause of the prevalence of hazing. Principal Morton was on the witness stand for the greater part of the morning session and admitted, on being questioned, that he believed high school students were in the habit of aping those in the universities.

Morton was directed by President George Gallagher of the board of education to make a complete report, submitting the names of those he believed guilty of hazing young McKnight. Darnie Monaco, the boy who was dragged from the school by force, stated that he was ready to make the twenty-foot jump at the same time as McKnight. The latter decided to make a running jump and he was going to make a standing jump. When McKnight was hurt he did not have to jump at all.

William Regentz and John Collins admitted being in the gang, but denied that they took any forcible part in the hazing. They are the only ones whose names have been brought prominently forward.

President Gallagher, in speaking of the statements by some of the boys, said: "If the boys in high schools can't be taught to tell the truth, then the high schools are failures."

The investigation was concluded and the board will take no action until Principal Morton makes his report.

15 YEARS PARTED, AGED COUPLE REWED

Fifteen years after they were divorced because their business interests were so far apart, Jeremiah E. Sprague, 55 years of age, and Clara D. Sprague, 60, met each other halfway today and were remarried. Mrs. Sprague came to Oakland all the way from Portland, Ore., for the ceremony and her two-time spouse came from Los Angeles. After a second honeymoon, however, the couple will make their home in Los Angeles.

Fifteen years ago, when Sprague was 50 and his wife was 45, they decided to separate permanently, inasmuch as the wife's business interests were in Portland and those of the husband were in Los Angeles. But they did not forget each other during those fifteen years. They corresponded. Both prospered in business.

Two weeks ago Sprague wrote to Mrs. Sprague and told her he was lonely. She answered that she shared his feeling. The next step came naturally. He proposed, she accepted him, and they each came halfway for the remarriage.

Dr. George W. White, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, performed the ceremony at noon today.

NEWLANDS CONDEMNS POLICY OF PRESIDENT

Senator From Nevada Says War Conditions Only Hope for Party's Retention of Power

BANK AND TARIFF REFORM DERIDED

Warns That United Republican Force Will Be Hard to Overcome Without Due Wisdom

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Senator Newlands of Nevada, Democrat, attacked his party's record in the Senate today, delivering a long prepared speech, in which he criticized the tariff and banking reforms—the chief legislative achievements of the Wilson administration. He declared that because there had been industrial and commercial depression, conservatism with Democratic control of legislation the party would be in danger of defeat at the next presidential election unless the European war continued and made the President's "sagacious and firm" handling of foreign affairs the overshadowing issue.

Although he characterized the general trend of Democratic legislation as commendable, the Senator asserted that the party was too radical and expressed the conviction that the opposition party can hope to gain in power which adopts radical instead of evolutionary methods of reform.

Danger of a Democratic defeat in the congressional elections of 1914, he said, was "brought only by the European war, which brought into sudden contrast the President's policy of watchful waiting, regarding Mexico with the mad haste of the European nations as they rushed to war; and which made that policy as popular as it was therefore less unpopular."

"The party," he added, "saved the nation from a civil war, but the defeat which would have surely come as the result of the general prostration of business, popularly attributed to the present administration."

"It would be charged to the European war; first, because what was injurious to our production and trade in its inception has since become a stimulant to production and exports; and second, because the commerce of this depression antedates the European war, which was a calamity with our legislation regarding the tariff, banking and trade."

"We are about to face a united Republican party, chastened by adversity and eager to persuade, and the question is whether the Democratic party, having done much to restore normal conditions, will follow the leadership of reform in again to be thrown out of power and deprived of the opportunity of continued usefulness, simply because an intervention period of depression subjects us again to the same old party, which has hard times with its accompanying loss of votes."

"It is safe to say that the man-

Military Bill Up for Second Reading

LONDON, Jan. 11.—The debate on the second reading of the military service bill began in the House of Commons this afternoon. The opinion was generally expressed in the lobby that the vote in favor of the bill on the second reading would prove greater than on the first reading. Some said the minority would divide down to a negligible figure.

It is believed a small number of the rank party will follow the leadership of Sir John Simon in resisting the compulsory measure to the end. Some of these members already have been requested to resign by their constituents.

British Steamer Clan McFarlane Is Sunk

LONDON, Jan. 11.—The British steamer Clan McFarlane of 1824 tons has been sunk in the Mediterranean. There are no details of the sinking. The Clan McFarlane was sent to the bottom December 20. Six officers and 15 lascars have been landed at Marseilles. Thirteen lascars died in life boats. The Clan McFarlane left Liverpool December 16 for Bombay.

8 GERMAN DIVERS LOST IN SEA RAID

ATHENS, Jan. 11.—How eight German submarines that set out to attack the British fleet were either destroyed or captured was described in a story told by Lord Kitchener on his recent visit here. No public account of the affair has ever been given.

"When the maneuvers of the great fleet were held about a month ago north of Scotland," said Lord Kitchener, "eight German submarines of the newest and strongest type went out with the purpose of getting to the fleet and playing havoc with the maneuvers. One came to grief in our North Sea net. The others nosed through and approached the fleet. But there was another net heading them off. They tried to break through, to get around to find an opening. But there was none. Two more were lost in this effort. Finally the remainder decided to return to their base at Heligoland."

FALL INTO TRAP.

"But they could no longer find the way out. The gate and the net had been closed. Two more were lost desperately trying to get through. The remaining three finally were forced to come to the surface and surrender themselves. We took them intact—crews, submarines and all."

Speaking of the British war minister's visit, the Greek monarch said to The Associated Press correspondent:

"I am a soldier. Kitchener is a soldier. We speak the same language and we understand one another perfectly from the outset."

TRITON CONQUESTS.

One declaration of the British war minister made to General Dousmaris, the chief of the Greek general staff, was not favorably received in Athens.

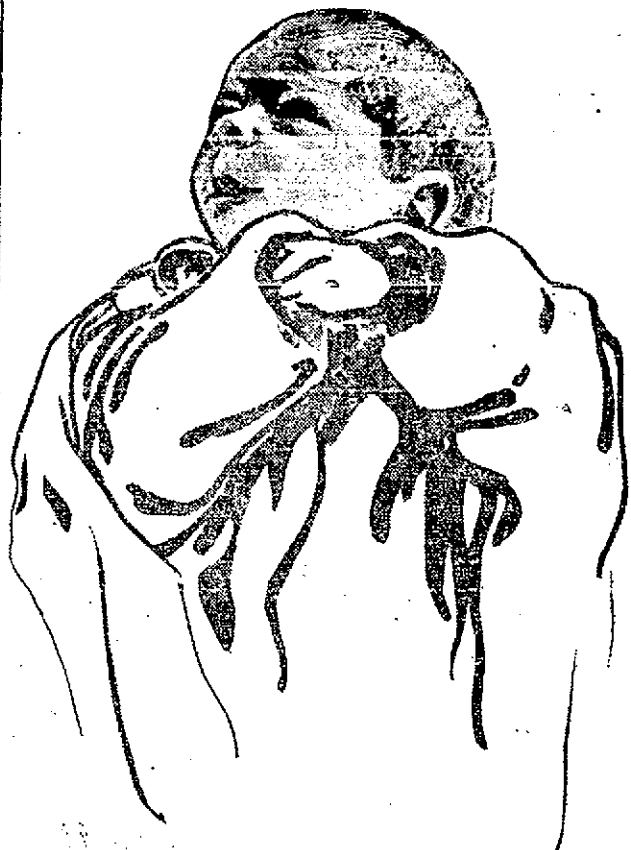

"Suppose the Germans do conquer Egypt," he is credited with saying. "Suppose they extend their line throughout Turkey and hold the Uprates Valley? Suppose they take India? What then? We shall get it all back when we defeat the Germans in France. The war is not going to be fought out in Egypt, or India, or the Balkans. It is going to be fought in Germany."

King Constantine's only comment was: "It is all very well for England to talk about what she will get back at the war's end, but we Greeks live in the Balkans."

GAME TO HOSPITALS.

BERLIN, Jan. 11.—The German crown prince has ordered that all the game shot on his hunting estate in Braunschweig this season shall be given to the military hospitals in the Braunschweig district. The shooting has already begun under the auspices of the crown prince's hunting representative.

BABY SMILES WAY TO HOME MANY OPEN HEARTS TO CHILD

"BILLY BOY" THE LITTLE WAIF WHO CAME TO OAKLAND ON CHRISTMAS MORN. FOUND THAT FATHER, STORK HAD NOT PROVIDED PROPERLY FOR HIM, AND WHO HAS NOW FOUND PARENTS, HOME AND NAME ALL AT THE SAME TIME.

Pats has woven a coat of bright colors for little Billy Boy, the wee mortal who was born in this city on Christmas morning only to find that apparently there was no place for him. Dr. W. W. Kegan discovered Billy Boy, and he was so interested in the city's Christmas present that he made up his mind he would find a place for the little citizen.

A telephone message to the Good Fellow department of The TRIBUNE, that mysterious agency for kind deeds, did the trick. Billy Boy's story was printed and soon you guess what happened? Within 48 hours twenty-five people had called to see Billy Boy. They all wanted to cuddle him, to poke a kindly finger into his dimpled cheek, and chuck him under the chin, and to gurgles those mysterious words that only babies are supposed to understand.

This afternoon, some time, papers of formal adoption will be taken out, and Billy Boy will get a father and mother, a name and a home all at the same time, and he'll never be a bit the wiser.

So, you see, Oakland isn't turning down any Christmas presents that come her way, and who knows but what Billy Boy will some day repay it all!

"Bless me," observed Dr. Kegan, "I had a dozen youngsters in the same fix I could have placed them all."

Electro-Magnetic 'Hand' Perfected Can Handle All Objects, Says Inventor

BERLIN, Jan. 11.—After years of experiment, Director Klingenberg of the General Electric Company has announced the perfection of an "electro-magnetic hand" with which it is possible to grasp even the heaviest metal objects and work with them advantageously as with human hands.

Dr. Klingenberg has evolved an unusually powerful battery which can be carried by the operator, making it unnecessary for him to be near the electric current in order to magnetize the "hand." The invention, it is said, can perform all the functions of the human hand and others besides. The current is regulated by a switch operated by hand or foot.

It is hoped that the invention will solve the problem of livelihood for many crippled soldiers, enabling them to engage even in trades requiring considerable manual dexterity, such as carpentry. By means of the manipulation of knife and fork and similar instruments is a mere bagatelle.

Redmond May Retire From Party, Rumored

LONDON, Jan. 11.—John Redmond's retirement from the leadership of the Nationalist party and possible from parliament is extremely probable, according to the Morning Post's Dublin correspondent, owing to grave differences of opinion within the party especially on the question of military compulsion.

Mr. Redmond would have been in favor of applying the national resistance scheme, the Earl of Grey's scheme, and Premier Asquith's compulsion bill to Ireland, the correspondent adds, "but he was overborne by John Dillon, who strongly opposed compulsion in any form, either for Ireland or England and assumed a peremptory tone which would seem to indicate that he has a strong following."

Letters to Embassy Opened by Censor

LONDON, Jan. 11.—Since the censorship on incoming American mails was inaugurated, personal letters have arrived at the American Embassy and Consulate, marked "opened by the censor." A collection of these letters is being made as evidence for a possible protest against this extension of the censorship.

No attempt has been made to interfere with the regular embassy official mail pouch. If the precedents recognized by international law do not forbid it, a similar exemption under the rules of diplomatic privilege probably will be framed for the personal mail of the attaches of the embassy and consulate.

Dardanelles Fiasco Cost Allies $1,250,000,000

BERLIN, Jan. 11.—According to estimates by competent authorities here, the entente powers spent $1,250,000,000 on the Dardanelles expedition, not inclusive of their losses in warships and trading craft, says the Overseas News Agency today.

"According to reports that have reached the Turkish capital, the entente had arranged for distribution of control at Constantinople so that one-third was to be governed each by Great Britain, France and Russia. It is known that since April more than 1000 civil officers have been assembled on the island of Rhodes in order that such a change of the civil power immediately after Constantinople was captured."

Protectionists Hail Trade Fight Project

LONDON, Jan. 11.—The protectionist organs among the London morning newspapers derive special comfort from the debate in the House of Commons yesterday. William Albert Samuel Hewins' resolution for mobilizing the entire economic strength of the empire in cooperation with Great Britain's allies to fight Germany's system of trade. They see in it a drift toward the inevitable adoption of a tariff as a means of combating German trade. The mere fact that such a debate was permitted in war time is regarded as significant.

Germans Take Up Case Against U. S. Consul

BERLIN, Jan. 11 (By Wireless to Sayville, N. Y.).—The newspapers of Berlin, says the Overseas News Agency, assert that the German government has taken up the case of Edward Higgins, American consul at Frankfurt, who has been made statements hostile to Germany and in violation of neutrality.

An English correspondent at Amsterdam reported on Saturday that German newspapers were demanding the immediate recall of Mr. Higgins on the ground that he had given expression to anti-German sentiments.

Hearst Ranch Manager Killed by General

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Patrick Keane, manager of the Hearst ranch near Madera, Mexico, reported to have been murdered at Tihico, is said to have been killed by General Medina-Veldia, late of Villa's army, according to advices today to the State Department. Keane had incurred the enmity of certain Villa followers. These men were thought to have killed Villa soldiers accused of stealing cattle. It is understood that he was an Englishman.

Teuton Belts Found on Swedish Coast

BERLIN, Jan. 11.—"A Copenhagen newspaper states that life-saving belts from a German man-of-war have been found on the Swedish coast," says the Overseas News Agency. "It is stated authoritatively that these belts must not come from the German cruiser Bremen, an announcement of the sinking of which by a submarine was made officially last night."

Lafayette, Threatened Liner, Safe in Port

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—The French liner Lafayette, which was threatened with destruction in anonymous messages sent to Henry Clews, Jr., and others who booked passage from Bordeaux, arrived here today and reported that neither a submarine nor a mine had been sighted during the voyage.

FIGHT GERMANY'S COMMERCE, URGED

British Statesman Fears Big Economic Struggle After End of War.

LONDON, Jan. 11.—The debate in the House of Commons last night was chiefly remarkable for the unanimity of the members in urging the government to exert the largest possible degree of economy pressure on Germany and in recommending that steps should immediately be taken to prevent any measure from German trade warfare directed against the entente allies after peace is signed.

A resolution was adopted that "with a view to increasing the power of allies in the prosecution of the war, his majesty's government should enter into immediate consultation with the governments of the dominions in order with their aid, to direct the whole economic strength of the empire, in co-operation with the allies against the enemy."

The principal speech made by Walter Henderson, president of the board of trade, whose emphatic denunciations of the importance of maintaining strict trade barriers were regarded as largely directed toward clearing the position which caused him to hesitate to endorse Premier Asquith's compulsion bill last week.

"While the war is on," he said, "we must do everything in our power to cripple and destroy German finance, credit and trade, at the same time building up our own and allies' and laying the foundation for future action when peace comes."

In the course of the debate, there were some references to the danger of competition with the United States, which one member declared would be a more formidable competitor after the war than Germany. To this John Halford MacKintosh, Unionist for Glasgow, replied, expressing the affection of Great Britain for America.

Strike in Spanish Metal Industry On

PARIS, Jan. 11. A general strike in the metal industry began today at Barcelona, Spain, without incident. According to the Madrid correspondent of the Havas Agency the Duke of Alba when he took over the ministry of interior received information that international agents were preparing a general strike involving all Spain to begin with the new year, with the purpose of causing emigration of Spanish workmen to factories abroad.

REPUBLIC STRIKE PARTLY BROKEN

Raise Offered, More Than Half of the Men Ask to Return.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Jan. 11.—Operations at the plant of the Republic Iron and Steel Company probably will be resumed in some department late today, President Thomas J. Tracy said at noon today. He said that more than 50 per cent of the employees had asked him that they wanted to return. The Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company, posted notices at its plant today that the wages of skilled employees now receiving 40 cents an hour would be advanced to 45 cents and those receiving 30 cents to 35 cents.

The advance is claimed to affect about three thousand men.

Subpoenas were served on Thomas H. Flynn, general organizer of the American Federation of Labor; James A. Campbell, president; and C. S. Robinson, vice-president of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company, to appear this afternoon before the grand jury. Mr. Flynn, it is a statement in which he claimed that the riot in East Youngstown was a financial success to depress the value of stock of the tube company.

Ship Transfer Not Valid: War Court

HAMBURG, Jan. 11.—The text of the prize court's decision with respect to the American bark Pass of Balmain, which was condemned December 13 because her transfer from British ownership to American registry after the outbreak of the war was invalid, has now been made public.

The court based its decision on Article 56 of the London declaration and Article 12, German prize regulations, which is even sharper. The latter declares expressly that transfer to neutral registry is only valid when it is proved that the transfer has nothing to do with war, and was made for reasons not connected with war. Such a ship is liable to capture unless she carries aboard the necessary papers proving that the transfer would have taken place regardless of the outbreak of war.

The Pass of Balmain was captured while bound for Archangel, Russia, with cargo of cotton.

Jews Resist Plans of Turkish Rulers

PARIS, Jan. 11.—The Midi declares that only five or six thousand Jews in Palestine have applied for naturalization as Turkish citizens notwithstanding pressure exerted by the Ottoman government. The paper explains that the Turks hoped to oblige thousands of Jews who were mostly Russian subjects to be subjects of Turkey. It says that many Russian Jews have tried to leave Palestine, but were forbidden to do so and will be put in concentration camps.

Correspondence of the Frankfurter Zeitung from Jerusalem, given out by the Overseas News Agency in Berlin last November, said that 20,000 Russian Jews had requested Turkish citizenship, which was granted them by the government without the payment of the ordinary taxes.

British Relief Force Far From Objective

LONDON, Jan. 11.—The British force in Mesopotamia under General Aylmer, proceeding up the Tigris to the relief of Kut el Amara, still is halted at Sheikh Saad, some twenty miles from Kut el Amara, according to the latest advices received by the government, but the fact is due to weather conditions and the necessity of removing the wounded by river.

This announcement was made in the House of Commons this morning by J. Austen Chamberlain, secretary for India. British cavalry forces have located the Turks six miles east of Kut el Amara, Chamberlain added. This is the position from which the Turks were originally driven by General Townshend in the battle of Kut el Amara.

Salvation Army Man Has Entered Belgium

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—Major Wallace Winchell, of the Salvation Army, who was lauded by the German government from supervising relief work in Belgium for the Salvation Army, has been permitted to enter Belgium, according to a message received here last night. Dr. Maximilian Asenjo, an exiled Nicaraguan revolutionist and editor, who was befriended by Major Winchell several years ago, is said to have urged the German government to reconsider its decision. Dr. Asenjo has been editor of a Spanish edition of the Hamburger Nachrichten.

Major Winchell was stationed in Jersey City when he was chosen to head of the Belgium relief work by General Bramwell Booth, head of the Salvation Army.

The Newest Player Pianos Are Electrically Operated

Inventive genius has solved the problem of the motor-driven Player Piano. Now the Piano Playing device is to the pianist what the Victrola is to the singer—an instrument which reproduces with perfect fidelity every shading, every gradation of tempo, of tone and of touch. Now your favorite compositions may be heard in your own home, flawlessly, faultlessly rendered by an instrument electrically controlled, which while more perfect than any which has heretofore been shown, costs no more than any high-class player of the old type.

The new Electric Player Pianos are really four Pianos in one. They may be played manually as an ordinary piano. They may be played with foot pedals as the usual player piano. They may be electrically pedaled and manually controlled, or they may be used as an Electric Automatic Reproducing Piano.

Our Player Piano Department shows the very latest developments, the newest in player construction, and is confined to the products of no one particular maker. Therefore your opportunity for intelligent comparison is best here.

There are but three types of Accenting Player Pianos. All may be seen on our floors.

Bar Leaders Ask Taft Be Named Supreme Bench Place Asked of Wilson

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—A letter signed by seven men who have been presidents of the American Bar Association, four of whom are Democrats and three Republicans, has been sent to President Wilson urging him to appoint former President Taft to succeed the late Justice Lamar on the United States Supreme Court bench.

The letter also is signed by widely known lawyers from fourteen states. It says Mr. Taft, by reason of his training, intellectual qualities and "the confidence reposed in him by the people, is better qualified than any other man" successfully to discharge the duties of the office.

Some of the signers are former Secretary of War J. M. Dickinson, former ambassador to Great Britain, Joseph H. Choate, Alton B. Parker and former Senator Elihu Root.

Clark Would Free Philippines Soon

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Senator Clark, Democrat, today introduced a resolution to direct the President to withdraw all American sovereignty over the Philippine Islands and recognize an independent government to be set up there within two years. The resolution was referred to the Philippine committee.

Investigation of Judges Is Desired

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Senator Cummings, Republican, introduced a resolution today to direct the Judiciary committee to investigate and report on the number of federal judges who cannot properly discharge their duties and recommend how they may be supplanted.

Changes Are Ordered in Commerce Attaches

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Several changes in the United States commerce attaché service were announced today by Secretary Redfield through Dr. E. E. Pratt, chief of the foreign and domestic commerce bureau. Two new attachés are named.

William P. Mackay of Ohio will go to Lima to take the place made vacant by the resignation of A. I. Harrington. Philip B. Kennedy, an instructor in New York University, is named to succeed William C. Downs at Melbourne. Mr. Downs will go to Rio Janeiro to succeed Lincoln Hutchinson, who will quit the service soon.

These appointments complete the forces of ten attachés authorized by Congress a year and half ago. The service has been in active operation about a year.

TEDDY AND ROOT.
ST. PAUL, Jan. 11.—Filing blanks for signatures to present the names of Theodore Roosevelt and Elihu Root to Minnesota voters on the forthcoming primaries for the Republican presidential nomination were issued yesterday by the Secretary of State.

TRUTH DISPLEASES NAVY SECRETARY

Rear-Admiral Fiske Incurs Daniels' Displeasure Through Interview.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Facts concerning an interview between Rear-Admiral Bradley A. Fiske and Secretary Daniels is published here today. Admiral Fiske, who incurred the displeasure of Daniels by telling the truth to the Naval Committee of Congress last session and was transferred to Newport, recently applied for thirty days' leave of absence. He wished to spend that period with his wife, who is in delicate health and under the care of a specialist in Washington. Leave was granted him to "go South."

Believing his request has been misunderstood, he came to Washington and called on Secretary Daniels, explaining his wife's condition and that he did not wish to "go South" but to remain here with Mrs. Fiske. "You have been talking to members of Congress, and if you were a younger man I would court-martial you," replied Daniels to the astonished admiral. "Why, Mr. Secretary," he replied, "I have not talked extensively to members of Congress. I have merely answered their questions and told them nothing but the truth." "That is precisely it," exclaimed Daniels in great anger. "I don't want you to tell them the truth. They have no right to know the truth."

Out of consideration for his wife, Admiral Fiske did not resent the Secretary's language, as he had a right to do, but decided, because of her grave condition, to be dignified. Finally, he procured consent to remain for the thirty days in Washington, but only on condition that he would practically seclude himself. He would cancel an engagement in Chicago, which he had promised to address the Commonwealth Club on the Navy, and would, to the utmost of his ability, refrain from giving members of Congress facts regarding naval conditions. "I don't want you to say one word about the Navy to these fellows, or to anyone else," exclaimed Daniels, "not even so much as to say that two and two make four," and because of Mrs. Fiske's health the admiral acquiesced, so possibly Mr. Daniels will by such means be able to withhold the truth from the national legislature.

Believes Free Sugar Will Be Repealed

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—A prominent southern Democratic senator declared today that there is no doubt that the free sugar clause, which President Wilson forced Congress to adopt against the advice of Mr. Underwood and other able Democrats, and in violation of his solemn pledge to the Louisiana Democrats, will be repealed, but its repeal will fall far short of providing sufficient funds to make good the deficit.

Special taxes on gasoline and other petroleum products, a tax on the small gas engines used by the farmer and the dairyman, the sugar newspapers and small manufacturers, all of which have been recently recommended by President Wilson, will be considered.

Slow progress is being made on revenue legislation, members desiring to hear from the people.

Conference of Neutrals Urged Women Lay Their Plans Before Congress

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Women Peace advocates laid their plans before Congress today.

Representatives of the Women's Peace Party, which has been in annual session here, appeared before the Foreign Affairs committee of the two houses to urge the calling of a conference of neutral nations in the interest of an early peace and to oppose increased appropriations for military preparations.

Miss Jane Adams of Chicago, president of the peace party, headed the delegation, and the speakers included Mrs. Crystal Eastman Benedict of New York, Miss S. P. Brackenridge of Chicago and Mrs. Lucia Ames Mead of Boston.

A committee named at the concluding session of the convention last night to arrange for mass meetings of women all over the country on Washington's birthday to protest against "unnecessary war preparations" began its work today. Officers re-elected included Miss Adams as president.

Daniels to Let Navy Officers Testify

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Secretary Daniels has written Representative Britton in reply to the latter's charges that the secretary would try to prevent free expression of naval officers' views before the House naval committee, that "any officer, civil employee or enlisted man in the navy" would be ordered before the committee on his request.

The report of Admiral Fletcher, covering operations of the Atlantic fleet for the past year, and the recent war games, will be sent to the senate as has been requested.

NEWLANDS SCORES WILSON'S POLICY

corporate interests are hostile to the Democratic party and that their employees also are preparing to throw their weight against it simply because its administration has not brought good times, but on the contrary has, in their judgment, brought bad times.

TARIFF MOVE TOO FAST.
"Regarding the tariff, my view was that our undertaking was not to immediately adopt a theoretically correct tariff system, but simply to climb gradually down from the protective heights upon which the Republican party had placed the manufacturing interests of the country, not to jump down at the risk of destruction, but to climb down slowly and laboriously with a view to preserving, as far as practicable, every American industry and endangering none."

"When we came to a practical realization of what we had promised by legislation, we were inclined, I thought, to go too fast and too far."

"The effect of the tariff legislation was what I feared it would be. The tying up of production in this country was the result of a malicious effort of the manufacturers to teach the country a lesson, but of the caution and timidity which can in many cases be proved to be without reason, but which nevertheless always exist under like conditions."

"So also with banking legislation. Instead of providing some simple method for mobilizing the banking reserves of state and national banks under the control of a non-partisan board or commission, respecting the Interstate Commerce Commission, which would gradually, through powers of investigation, publicity, correction and recommendation to Congress work out further reforms, we were intent upon legislation which alarmed the banks by the largeness of our proposals."

BANK PLAN WEAKNESS.
"We failed to make the reserve board non-partisan, tied it to an executive department through the membership of the secretary of the treasury and the comptroller, subjects the member banks to the investigating and correctional powers of a single partisan comptroller instead of the composite judgment of a quasi-judicial non-partisan board and exacted additional and unnecessary capital from member banks, thus organizing the reserve and creating a new money-making institution, a purpose entirely foreign to their nature as protective organizations. The result is that the union of banks is incomplete, the state half being outside and the national half inside the reserve organization with the prospect that those outside will remain so unless the law is modified."

"I think it would be wise to shape the way for legislation during the next session by making the reserve board non-partisan, merging the comptroller's office with powers and duties in the reserve board and doing away with all capital requirements beyond the percentage of reserves of member banks now required."

ARMY INCREASE PLAN MEETS OPPOSITION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Plans to strengthen the national guard instead of establishing a continental army as contemplated by the War Department were proposed to President Wilson today by Chairman Hay of the House military committee. Hay would not reveal how his suggestion was received by the President.

Under Hay's plan the national guard would get regular pay and a provision would be included in the army bill for taking it into the regular army in time of war. He said that at first the plan was being given only about 126,000 men into the regular army, but he felt sure that within two years there would be 400,000.

The plan also proposes to increase the present regular regiments of infantry to war strength instead of adding ten new regiments, as planned by the War Department. Hay thinks that would give the same increase in the regular army without adding to overhead charges.

A tentative army bill drawn up by Hay after conferences with War Department officials now includes the continental army feature.

President Wilson has endorsed the entire War Department plan, including the continental army. Today's development was the first indication of a disagreement between the administration and the chairman of the military committee. It is understood that Hay's views were taken up at today's cabinet meeting.

It will be about six weeks before the House committee will be ready to put the army bill before the House.

Congressional ITEMS

That the Administration is expecting to hold Congress in Washington all summer was the statement of a prominent Republican member of the House Appropriations Committee this morning. "In no other way," he stated, "can I account for the inexcusable and unprecedented delay in framing the big appropriation bills. Evidently the leaders think there is plenty of time, and they are taking it easy."

"There is no reason for delaying unless the Democrats plan to sit here all summer," said the member just referred to. "While it is true that important questions of policy are to be settled in these measures, yet they are not so controversial as the revenue bill. The minority would be glad to go ahead and get the business done, but the powers that be are putting on the brakes."

Hon. Thomas P. Gore, the blind senator from Oklahoma, today declared in an interview: "Justice Hughes is, in my opinion, the most likely nominee at Chicago. I think Hughes will accept. I don't want it understood that I doubt the sincerity of Justice Hughes in past statements that he would not run for the presidency; I like to take a man's word for a thing, of course, and I do, but I think Justice Hughes probably will conclude that he has declined from seeking the nomination he is released from obligation to decline an honor unsought by him."

Several resolutions have been introduced by members calling for an investigation by Congress over the increase in the price of gasoline, and also asking for information on the subject from the executive departments of the government. The Federal Trade Commission already has begun an investigation into this matter.

One resolution, which was introduced by Representative Fuller, of Illinois, provides that an inquiry should be made by the House Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce with a view to determining who was responsible for the increase in price and what steps might be taken to bring the later charged for this commodity down to a reasonable level.

Urges Penny Rate for "Drop" Postage

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Representative Britt of North Carolina, former third assistant postmaster-general, has prepared a bill for a flat rate of one cent postage for so-called drop letters, which are mailed and delivered in the same post-office where there is no carrier service. Mr. Britt contends the penny rate will more than pay the cost of delivery.

One Cent Postage Bill Introduced

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Contending that present rates of letter postage are unjust, Representative Kahn today introduced a bill proposing a reduction in the rates of postage on local delivery letters from two cents to one cent per ounce.

In a statement accompanying the bill, Kahn said: "Business at this time needs a stimulus and early action on the part of Congress adjusting the letter rates of postage would, to a great extent, serve this purpose."

"In a short time the volume of local delivery letters would be more than doubled, thus taking care of any possible loss in revenue."

Here Is Good News for Stomach Victims

Some very remarkable results are being obtained by treating stomach, liver and intestinal troubles with pure vegetable oils, which exert a cleansing, soothing and purifying action upon the lower bowels, removing the obstructions of poisonous fecal matter and gases, and preventing their absorption by the blood. This done, the food is allowed free passage from the stomach, fermentation ceases and stomach troubles quickly disappear.

George H. Mayr, for twenty years a leading Chicago druggist, cured himself and many of his friends of stomach, liver and intestinal troubles of years' standing by this treatment, and so successful was the remedy he devised that it has since been placed in the hands of druggists all over the country, who have sold thousands of bottles.

Though absolutely harmless, the effect of the medicine is sufficient to convince any one of its remarkable effectiveness, and within 24 hours the sufferer feels like a new person.

Mayr's Wonderful Remedy is sold by leading druggists everywhere with the positive understanding that your money will be refunded without question or quibble if ONE bottle fails to give you absolute satisfaction.—Advertisement.

AS WE GROW OLDER

our minds are quite as active as in former years but our strength does not respond when we need it most; perhaps the kidneys are weak, the liver torpid, rheumatic pains or stiffened joints beset us, and we cannot easily throw off the colds that winter brings.

What we need is the rich cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion to renew the blood and carry strength to every organ of the body, while its glycerine soothes the respiratory tract, and its hypophosphites strengthen the excitable nerves.

Scott's Emulsion is a scientific oil-food, of unusual benefit to those past fifty years—particularly during the colder seasons, it imparts warmth and creates strength. One bottle will prove its worth. No alcohol or harmful drugs.

To make the preliminary arrangements the committee will hold an open meeting tonight at the German House, to which all interested are cordially invited. The meeting will start promptly at 8 o'clock and will be held jointly with a meeting of the ladies auxiliary.

Part of the funds already collected have been sent by the committee for the relief of the civil and war prisoners in Siberia through the American Red Cross, and large consignments of foodstuffs and provisions have been made by manufacturers and merchants.

George F. Volkman, chairman of the finance committee, will receive contributions at the German House.

Grand Jury Takes Up Alleged Case of Libel

SAN JOSE, Jan. 11.—District Attorney A. M. Free today commenced introduction of the state's case against Attorney W. M. Beggs, prominent local practitioner, who is accused of having extorted $2000 from Joseph N. Da Rosa, an unsophisticated clerk, while the latter was being held in the city prison on a charge of petty larceny and supposed to be under the protection of the police. News that the Supreme Court would not halt the trial by invalidating the grand jury which indicted Beggs was received here this morning. Through the error of a clerk the inquisitorial body was summoned on a trial jury instead of a grand jury.

The trial jury was obtained yesterday afternoon and sworn. Outlining the case that he expects to prove, Free said:

"Briefly stated, then, I intend to prove to you that Da Rosa took less than $200, but was made to pay $2000 under the impression that this was the only way that he could gain immunity from prosecution and saved from the penitentiary."

A situation which will have far-reaching local political effects has developed here as a result of the grand jury activity in the Beggs case and also in the case of George Masters, a Bassett street merchant, indicted a few days ago for arson after having been freed at his preliminary hearing through the testimony of Police Detective J. P. Condon, who stated that a confession upon which the state's case hinged had been made by Masters upon promise of immunity. He admitted that this promise was made by his superior, this testimony being held, barred the confession, without which prosecution fell down for lack of evidence.

JURY PROBES CASE

The grand jury took up an investigation of the manner in which the Masters case had been handled by the police department, and their attention particularly to the part that Condon had played. They had previously devoted considerable time to investigating as to whether or not Da Rosa had been victimized by Beggs with the knowledge of Condon, who testified that he had been released without the permission of his superiors and allowed him to be robbed of the savings of a lifetime. As a result an indictment was returned against Masters and a strong word of commendation was addressed to the board of police and fire commissioners announcing "the grand jury is making an investigation of serious defections of duty by subordinates in the police department of the city of San Jose."

"We have particularly noted that Police Detective Joseph Condon has been active in at least two different cases where those involved in criminal acts have been materially assisted and protected."

"We understand that charges were filed against this officer by the state's attorney as a result of his action in the Da Rosa case, but that three members of your body voted to retain this officer."

"In the Masters case, according to the sworn testimony of this officer to the police court, he has again been guilty of serious misconduct."

The communication closed with a request for information as to what action would be taken by the police board in the matter.

SEX IS SUSPENDED

The police board held a meeting and instructed all police witnesses to submit reports and appear at a police hearing January 21—after the grand jury had adjourned.

The grand jury announced that it would remain in session until some action had been taken to rectify conditions. Mayor P. R. Husted then stepped in and forced a call for a special meeting tonight for the purpose of considering the grand jury charge concerning Detective Joseph Condon. The mayor followed this up last night by suspending Police Commissioner James P. Sex, who was Masters' attorney at the police court hearing which resulted in Masters' acquittal, charging him with neglect and dereliction of duty and malfeasance in office.

"The principal witnesses against Masters," stated the mayor in his charge, "were Police Detective Joseph Condon and Fire Chief Edward Haley, both of which witnesses were under the control of the police and fire commission, of which Sex was a member; that said action by Sex was and is in plain violation of his oath of office and interferes with the proper discharge of his duty by members of the police and fire department and places in disrepute the departments of the city."

The order of suspension and charge were approved by unanimous vote of the common council.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 11.—Assistant Attorney General Abbott Phillips in the trial of Mrs. Elizabeth Mohr and two negroes, Cecil Brown and Henry Spellman, charged with the murder of Dr. C. After hearing the statement the jury was taken to the scene of the murder, also to Dr. Mohr's house and garage in this city and to Mrs. Mohr's home near by.

SOLD ALCOHOL TO DRINKERS CHARGE

Japanese Held Following Death of Buyers of Unlabeled Poison.

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 11.—T. Takano, proprietor of a Japanese drug store and hotel in the lodging house district, was arrested late yesterday on a charge of selling wood alcohol without labeling the bottles "poison."

Detectives who investigated the deaths of ten men and one woman from alcoholism since prohibition became effective January 1st, asserted that at least three of the persons who died from drinking wood alcohol had purchased it from Takano. Prosecuting Attorney Lundin said he would charge Takano with manslaughter.

One of the wood alcohol victims was a lodger in Takano's hotel. Other sales of wood alcohol, the police said, were made on the street by Takano, known as Tom Shannon, who died Sunday from wood alcohol poisoning. Shannon's body was identified by men who told the police that he had been employed by Takano to send seekers of alcohol to his drug store. Besides the eleven dead already claimed by alcoholism, two men and one woman are in the city hospital suffering from wood alcohol poisoning. The woman probably will recover but hospital authorities say that the men cannot live.

John Alton, 49, a laborer, died in the city hospital last night of wood alcohol poisoning, making the twelfth death from alcoholism since the prohibition law went into effect.

STOMACH TROUBLES DUE TO ACIDITY

So-called stomach trouble, such as indigestion, wind, stomach-ache and inability to retain food, are in probably nine cases out of ten simply evidence that fermentation, the result of excess acid in taking place in the food contents of the stomach, causing the formation of gas. Wind distends the stomach and causes that full, oppressive feeling sometimes known as heartburn, while the acid irritates and inflames the delicate lining of the stomach. The trouble lies clearly in the excessive secretion of acid and the fermentation of food. Such fermentation is unnatural and may involve harmful consequences if not corrected. It stops or prevents fermentation of food contents of the stomach and neutralizes the acid, and render it bland and harmless, a teaspoonful of Bismarck MacKenzie's Stomach Remedy, a most effective corrector of acid stomach, known, should be taken in a quarter of a glass of hot or cold water immediately after eating, when wind or acidity is felt. This stops the fermentation, and neutralizes the acidity in a few moments. (Indigestion, flatulence and acidity are probably necessary stop or prevent them by the MacKenzie, which can be obtained from any druggist, and thus enable the stomach to properly digest the food, which is hindered by gas and excessive acidity, an advertisement.

First Prohibition Raid Made in North

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 11.—The first raid by the police under the new statewide prohibition law, which became effective January 1, was made late last night when policemen armed with a search warrant entered a large downtown cafe and arrested Edward Osterkevich, one of the proprietors, and George Sewekel, waiter, on a charge of selling liquor.

The policemen who made the raid said they found beer served in coffee pots at two tables. The police confiscated a considerable quantity of liquor. The police also raided a hotel in the lodging house district, arrested Edward Osterkevich, one of the proprietors, and confiscated a large quantity of liquor. The arrested men were released on $150 bail each.

Compromise Offer Is Made in Merced Case

MERCED, Jan. 11.—Application was made in the Superior Court yesterday by Mrs. Marianna Higgins, widow of P. H. Higgins, for an order authorizing a compromise of the case recently instituted by her against H. S. Shaffer, W. T. White, J. T. Howell and J. S. Swan, bondsmen of Assemblyman Edward S. Ellis, administrator of the Higgins estate.

The original complaint charged that $2500 was due the widow for money collected from the estate by Ellis and not turned over to her. As Ellis is missing, the suit for the recovery of the money was filed against his sureties.

In the present application Mrs. Higgins states she is willing to compromise for $325, as no more than that was ever collected by Ellis, according to state investigations.

The department sent inquiries to all United States consuls throughout the world before Aronson was found.

FIFTY OF FORD PARTY TO RETURN

Student Members Sail on the Steamer Noordam for New York.

THE HAGUE, Jan. 11.—Fifty students, members of the Ford peace expedition, left yesterday for Rotterdam, from where they sail on the steamer Noordam for New York. About one hundred American members of the expedition remain in The Hague. Most of them will sail for the United States January 15.

The members of the permanent peace board will remain here with the members of the board from the other neutral nations. A crowd that filled the large auditorium located in the zoological garden attended the Ford expedition's first public meeting in Holland. Speeches were made by civilians of various nations. These called the attention of the audience to the necessity of ending the present war and preventing future wars, because they are burdensome to neutral nations which are compelled to mobilize and remain in a state of constant fear.

This subject was provoked largely by the scenes of building military activity witnessed here. The Hague since the peace advocates arrived here. The speakers included Judge Ben Lindsey of Denver; the Rev. Jenkin Lloyd Jones of Chicago; and Healdin Lullien, district attorney at Christchurch.

Alvin Van Emmen, a prominent Holland clubwoman, described the great suffering which has been inflicted on the smaller neutral nations as a result of the present war.

Bear's Paws Are Insured For Accident

ALICE TEDDY.

A rabbit's foot is admittedly lucky, but never before has a bear's paw served for more than a name for cake. One bear, however, has valuable paws, for they were insured Saturday for $5000 apiece. This bear is "Alice Teddy," named as the "Lillian Russell of the Animal Kingdom."

The only bear in the world that can skate on roller skates. "Alice Teddy" fell last week in San Francisco, and for fear that a fall might injure her skating ability caused her owner to place insurance on her feet. Application was made to Kent Harris, son of Judge T. W. Harris, an insurance expert for Alameda county, for protection for the bear, who is appearing in a local vaudeville house.

"Alice Teddy" was caught in the hills near the Northern California line, and has been trained from the time she was a cub three months old. She is declared by scientists to have the most remarkably trained brains ever possessed by a bear.

She was "discovered" on a ranch in Colusa county by Alex Pantages, the vaudeville manager, and placed on the stage, where she has since become famous.

The bear is of the California black species and is as tame as a dog.

KENT AND WATER CO. WAGE BATTLE

Wordy War Interests All of Marin County; Waxen Bitter.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—War. Kent, led in person by the Hon. William Kent, and the water company, the Kent company, is the focus of the Marin municipal water district.

Entirely entrenched on the shores of Lagunitas, with the battle front extending well into San Rafael, the supporters of the Kent company and the water company, under the leadership of A. W. Foster, the company's venerable treasurer and former president, voice defiance to the county.

The prize for which these rival hosts are contending is no less than the possession of the lands, reservoirs, plant and distributing system of the Marin Water Company, a subsidiary of the last-named concern.

BEGAN AT HEARING. The battle began yesterday with a most exhaustive hearing, decided that the Kent company was worth about twice as much as the water district's experts had contended they were worth.

The Kent company was offered a portion of its $2,000,000 of 6 percent bonds for public subscription, and failed to receive a single bid. Presumably none of the local bond houses cared to buy the Kent bonds.

KENT OPENS FIRE. William Kent, who represents 205 shares out of 6000 shares outstanding of Marin water stock, then discharged a whole battery of arguments against the water company and the water people. To every stockholder here and abroad, Kent mailed a six-page, closely-typed circular letter "outlining" the management of the company, and the Kent company's alleged mismanagement and unprofitable litigation, and commenting unfavorably on "the temperamental attitude of Mr. Foster."

WATER COMPANY REPLIES. Yesterday the water company flung this bomb into the Kent camp.

A CARD. It is to be recalled that the exigencies of a political campaign make it incumbent on Mr. William Kent of Marin county to issue untruthful and disloyal statements concerning this company, in which he himself is interested.

One of the things of which he did not inform his fellow-stockholders was the failure of himself and associates to come to the assistance of the company and the community when the company was in desperate straits and was being forced to sell out for the help rendered by the management, which he assails.

The directors of the Marin Water and Power Company do not require the use of government stationery or references to bankers to bolster their reputation. They have always conducted, and will continue to conduct the affairs of the company in an open and legal manner and for the interests of all stockholders and of the people.

While legal proceedings are pending before the courts they will not enter into personal attacks. MARIN WATER & POWER CO. The stockholders of the company are anxiously awaiting the next move of the belligerents.

Operates; May Save Defective Baby's Life

BARBERSFIELD, Jan. 11.—A fight against a well-known, hopeless, freak of nature is being made by physicians here to save the life of a defective four-pound baby, born to the wife of Joseph Abrila last yesterday.

The question as to whether science should intervene arose with the birth. Dr. Crease, attending physician, found that the child was suffering from spina-bifida, or a tumor at the posterior portion of the spinal column.

Nature had failed to complete its work, the spinal cord leaving the bony spinal canal near the lower end of the vertebral column and running down into the abdominal cavity, the child which usually surrounds the spinal cord in the spinal canal.

In at least 90 per cent of such cases where like condition obtains operations are of little use, the surgeon avers. He thinks the small chance which the child had for life, the sac was opened, the spinal cord dissected and replaced in correct position in the bony canal and the greater part of the sac cut away.

Quit or Retract, Is Minister's Demand

CHICO, Jan. 11.—Charges reflecting upon the character of Rev. Madison Slaughter, pastor of the First Baptist church of Chico, and members of his family, have sent the ranks of his congregation and resulted in protracted meetings of the members last night.

From his pulpit Slaughter demanded a complete investigation and that "the congregation either leave the church or retract" statements before the congregation.

Officials of the church refused last night to make public their findings, and Slaughter says nothing except that he will retract or leave the church or retract.

Slaughter charged from the pulpit that certain women of the church had cast aspersions upon his daughter, this resulting in a revival by the women involved in accusations made a year ago concerning Slaughter's alleged attentions to girl members of the church. At that time Slaughter was given a clean bill of health by the trustees.

Thieves Strip Home of All Furnishings

SAN JOSE, Jan. 11.—Returning unexpectedly from a visit in San Francisco, Mrs. William Hunt, wife of a Mountain View business man, discovered a pair of burglars in her home last night.

practically all the possessions in her country home. The men leaped through a rear window and went out a fence where the men made her way through the front door. She found that the men had just completed packing as she arrived. Burglaries have been committed in stores in various towns throughout the county during the past few days. More than a dozen months ago a store was burned from the drug store of Wagner and Winchester at Mountain View and the post-room of F. L. Campen of that place was entered on the same night.

Causes Arrest of Burglary Suspects

SAN JOSE, Jan. 11.—Miss Florence Burke of San Jose Santa Clara street, returned yesterday morning for two men caught in San Jose last night who are believed to have burglarized her home last night. The men were taken away from the drug store of Wagner and Winchester at Mountain View and the post-room of F. L. Campen of that place was entered on the same night.

it will do the most good. Our growing trade relations with Latin-American countries demand a more widely system in any event, one that eliminates the bother, the time and the cost of translation. The English system is a relic of a past age when seclusion and isolation was aimed at. The later effort to impose it upon other commercial nations failed. China has for several thousand years employed a decimal system of calculation, and one which, of course, is easily adjusted to the metric.

All business firms connected in any way with export and import business are unanimously in favor of the change. Business generally will approve it immediately it is introduced. Congress ought to take up the question as having an important bearing upon our commercial intercourse with other nations and disregard all sentimental objections. Business efficiency demands the metric system.

FEDERAL AID FOR INDIGENTS.

The California State Board of Health is about to ask Congress to enact a law extending federal aid for indigent persons afflicted with tuberculosis in state or other institutions when such persons are not citizens of the state where the institutions are located. As drafted the bill provides for the appropriation of $25,000 for the administration of the federal relief work and an adequate sum, not to exceed two million dollars, for the aid of persons deserving aid.

There cannot be much disagreement over the proposition that a state should be freed of at least a part of the burden of caring for visitors from other states suffering from the "white plague" when they are unable to care for themselves. One might just as well presume to argue against the humanitarian duty of society to give any aid to its indigent afflicted.

The care of poor tuberculosis patients is quite a burden on California and southwestern states. The climate causes many persons from other states to seek health or prolongation of life here. An ideal way, perhaps, would be to have the states of which they are citizens help defray the expense of such indigents, but that plan appears wholly impracticable, and would mean almost hopeless confusion and inordinate cost in the administration of the relief. The simpler plan is for the national government to extend the necessary aid. The cost, which will be insignificant, will thus be distributed equably among all the States. With proper provision to guard against abuse, the plan ought to be approved by Congress.

THE TEST AT SACRAMENTO.

The voting on the administration amendments to the state primary laws in the special session of the legislature provided a certain test for the political vision, standard and capacities of the members. The bills, watched over carefully by Speaker Young at the command of the Governor, make the registration of voters non-partisan. The verdict of the people as recorded at the referendum election last October was emphatically in favor of the full preservation of party identities and activities in the state and national government.

The proposition before the members of the Assembly and the Senate was, therefore, whether they would vote on the amendments in accordance with the definite instruction of their constituencies or keep their hand to the administration machine and ignore the will of the people. The proposition was clean-cut. There was no middle way. Full information of the subject was at hand. They knew how the people wanted them to vote.

A few of the legislators remained faithful to their trust and obedient to the instructions of the voters of their districts. Three Alameda members were of these faithful few. Their names are Senator GEORGE J. HANS, Assemblyman GEORGE BECK and Assemblyman PAUL J. ARNERICH.

After sixty-two years somebody invokes the Oregon blue law designed to restrain business and pleasurable activities on Sundays. A temporary injunction against the enforcement of it was made permanent by the State Circuit Court. The judge took the view that, no attempt having been made to enforce the law in all these years, and it being possible to apply the referendum next fall, it is reasonable to inhibit it at this time. The decision seems wise. That the law has remained a dead letter so long in prima facie evidence that there has never been a public sentiment equal to its enforcement; and the popular feeling about such things is much more liberal than it was when the law was enacted, or has ever been since. Hence, the people have a right to be heard from in the matter, and say whether they desire this law of other times enforced or not.

The virulence of the strike riots at Youngstown must result in unusual consideration of the trouble by the American public. The violence done indicates a wantonness far beyond any outgrowth of a labor dispute. It is definitely charged that the riots were the result of war plots, the same that have been responsible for riots and explosions elsewhere. Many Austrians are among the mill employees at Youngstown, and these are believed to have been easily incited by more crafty plotters. What to do in such an emergency, and with such a people is coming to be a pressing national question. It is brought acutely to the fore in the country's recent experiences.

NOTES and COMMENT

"Jury in New Haven case still out." Just like the stockholders, for all the world.

It may now be elucidated that the Hon. Woodrow Wilson's chapeau is definitely deposited within the circle.

It says in the paper, "Ford pacifists are increasing." What d'ye mean, increasing?

That a "chicken trust" can fall and fail for $195,000, is one of the anomalies of the day, considering the price of eggs.

The "dry" laws that have been put in force in several states hit the patent medicine trade, especially that branch of it that directs wine-glass doses.

"Gathers school data from back of horse." Heading to a Trinity county item. Unpromising place for statistics, it might be said.

Contemplating the doings up at the state capitol the natural wonder is whether the memory of the voter will endure until next November.

News from China is to the effect that the expense exceeds the revenue. Nothing to get discouraged over. Expense always exceeds revenue in all countries.

The "reformer" is too often the person who, having no inclination to do a certain thing himself, assumes it to be a great virtue to prevent others doing it.

A dispatch states that Oregonians have found milk to be a substitute for liquor. Evidently the returns were not all in. It must have been just the cradle vote.

A new bogie is being set up—that of a future Jap-English pact to the detriment if not the exploitation of the United States. But there is plenty to worry about in the things that are here right now.

The first woman to be officially named as a candidate for Vice-President of the United States is from Missouri and expects to be shown next November. Name is O'Hare; politics, Socialist.

The people last November disapproved the registration law enacted by the last legislature. Now the attempt is being made to get the law into the public's system by another process. The interesting question is, will the attempt succeed?

Mr. Bryan made a public protest in New York against having to proceed there at his own expense to testify in court. Mr. Bryan has traveled at his own expense so seldom since the Chautauqua discovered him that his aversion is natural.

"Germany stops annual winter bargain sales." Which is likely to be regarded as a summary interference with natural rights. The bargain counter is almost an altar to the gentler sex.

Dr. Foster of Berkeley is opposed to free text books and roller towels. At first glance the connection is not clear, but according to the doctor they are one in disseminating the eternal microbes. In all we eat or do nowadays we must reckon with the deadly germ.

The Youngstown riots, it is charged, were the result of war plotting. The heart of the violence seems to lie around Austrian employees and agitators, according to a report. The country will have to keep on exercising forbearance for the present, but might consider what could reasonably be done for the future.

The organization of a Universalist church recalls the story of a similar attempt in an orthodox New England town in days long gone by. Two worthy neighbor ladies were discussing the heretics over the line fence.

"What do you think," says one, "this new preacher says everybody is to be saved?" To which the amazed reply: "Mercy, is it so bad as that?"

THE SUPREME COURT.
Justice Lamar's service on the bench of the United States Supreme Court has been limited to a brief period, but he was regarded as an able jurist and a credit to President Taft, who appointed him. His death gives the Democratic President another opportunity to shape the personnel of our highest judicial tribunal. As Justice Lamar was a Democrat, the appointment of a Democratic successor would not change the present balance of the court from the political point of view. President Wilson has already named two of the court's members, Justice Pitney of New Jersey and Justice McReynolds of Tennessee. Only two of President Taft's appointees remain—Justices Hughes and Van Devanter. President Roosevelt appointed Justices Holmes and Day, President McKinley appointed Justice McKenna, while Chief Justice White owes his elevation to the court to President Cleveland.

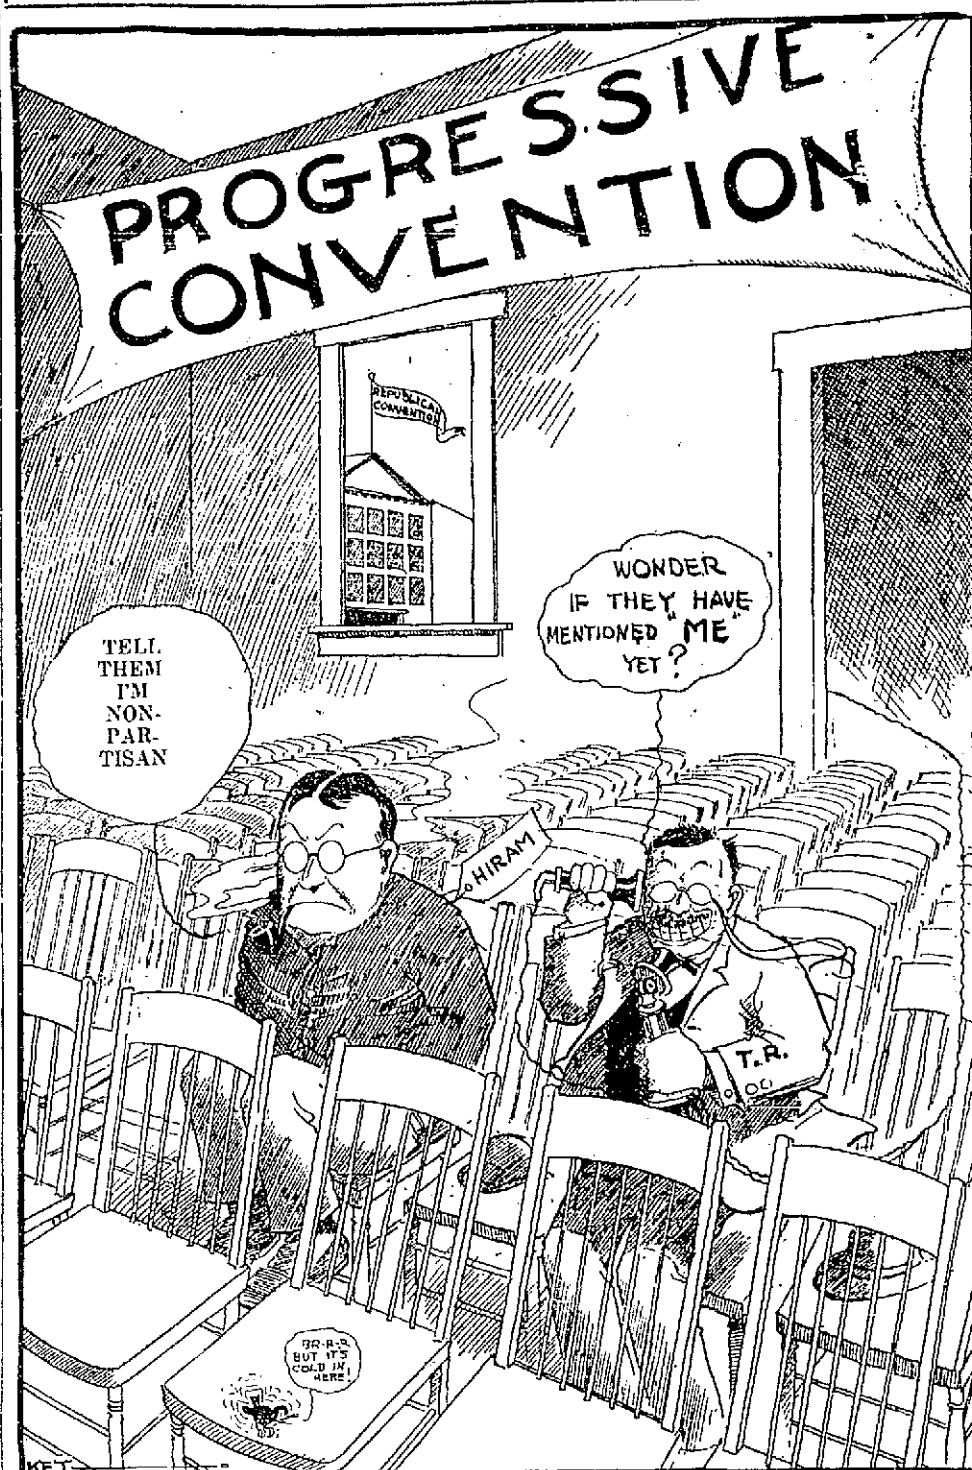

YORKSHIRE ANCESTRY.
To the Editor of The Tribune:
The enclosed clipping came to me this morning from England. There are many Yorkshire people in Oakland, and I am sending it to you, thinking you may care to reprint it. The clipping reads:

"President Wilson's Bride.—To Yorkshire people, tomorrow's wedding, by which President Wilson allies the White House a new mistress, is not without a particular interest, for the second Mrs. Wilson is very proud of her English ancestry and of her descent from an old Yorkshire family, whose name is still perpetuated in Bellingham.

"Mrs. Edith Bellingham descends from that Colonel Robert Bellingham who was the seventeenth century owner of both Chelmsford and Bellingham, two of Yorkshire's finest Tudor mansions. He emigrated to Virginia about 1660, and there he married, according to family records, a granddaughter of Pocahontas."

We are glad to know that the first lady of the United States was descended from a Yorkshire family.

SPREADING THE TERRIBLE NEWS

"If the able-bodied, military-trained Japanese now in California were to formulate a plan of conquest of this country and were to start in with the capture of California, it could be accomplished," declared Wallace Munro of New York and California, a staunch advocate of preparedness, at the Sholem. "I have been for the last eight months in the West and Middle West, and was astonished to learn of the almost helpless situation of the Pacific coast in the event of Asiatic invasion."

"San Francisco has harbor fortifications estimated at five times the strength of Gibraltar, and yet there are not enough enlisted men in our entire coast defense service to man adequately the guns of these fortifications, not to speak of the forts South and East. Even the position of our heaviest guns is such that they are only of service against marine invasion. If a movement were made upon the city coming from the northeast, our most effective defense would be almost useless, and the geographical location of the guns would prevent their use against a land invasion."

"With Monterey only 125 miles away, affording one of the best disembarking harbors in the world, totally unprotected, an Asiatic fleet could easily land an army of such proportions that nothing but disaster would be the answer to any attempt on our part to repulse it. Senator Works recently very accurately and graphically pointed out the helplessness of the Pacific coast, and Representative Kahn a few days ago gave a good description of the urgent need of preparedness. There must be munitions plants established on the Pacific. This is one step toward preparedness that must be taken. We should establish as speedily as possible batteries with the longest ranged guns that can be made along the entire coast, for our next trouble, in my judgment, will not be from across the Atlantic, but from the other side of the country."

Secretary Lane's report contains a highly interesting section headed "Young America." "I would erect the Bureau of Education," says Mr. Lane, "into a Bureau of Educational Methods and Standards in which would be gathered the ripe fruit of all educational experiments upon which the schools of the country could draw. This is a wide country, and there is need for a national clearing house where can be centered and exchanged the results of the more remote experiments." And in another passage he remarks, "We may not command, but we may 'show how.' This is democracy's substitute for absolutism in the effort to secure efficiency." May it not be added that "showing how" can be reinforced by what the English call "grants in aid," that is to say, by a policy of federal subsidies to schools which attain certain standards? This idea seems to be in the secretary's mind, for in advocating a rural school campaign he suggests that the government might help in bringing teachers into contact with the best rural schools in order that they might learn method and spirit. From this it is a policy of direct financial stimulus is not a very great step.—New Republic.

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Today's dispatches from Washington show how greatly this state has been injuriously affected by the Wilson tariff bill, and at the same time how varied are the resources of California. This showing is made in letters which are pouring into the headquarters of Senator Perkins from representatives of industries in the state which need a change in the existing tariff schedule. Among these are beet sugar, lumber, wool, chicken, mohair, cocoanut oil, asphaltum, opium, flower seeds, coal and many others.

DAIRY LADY OF THE SONNETS.
Who were you, lady, whose black magdala layed
The sunward soaring eagle in his flight,
And lured him to your sullen lair, and made
The sun but darkness seem beside the light
Lurking in your dark hair and dusky eyes?
We that have wept above Verone's fair,
And had our laughter 'neath Messina's pikes
With Leonato's daughter Deborah,
We know not how nor by what English name
Men spoke of you of old in old London town,
Nor what your lover whispered, whose proud shame
Your faithfulness with fealty did crown,
But, captive in his glory evermore,
Sunward and swift, we see you mount
And soar.

AGREEMENT
OF COLLEGES
IS AT HANDStanford Overtures Hold Out Hope of Settle-mentBig Universities May
Again Engage in Competition

BERKELEY, Jan. 11.—Renewed overtures from Stanford University made brighter today over the prospect for a renewal of athletic relations between that institution and the University of California. The plan suggested in a letter received by President Charles B. Street Jr. of the California students from P. H. Wilson of the Stanford students body for an early meeting of the pro-agreement committee will be laid at once before the California undergraduates. President Street was in conference with Wilson last evening and stated today that the meeting of the intercollegiate representatives may be held before the end of the week. Wilson's letter declares that Stanford will agree to the elimination of freshmen provided California accepts the scholarship requirements suggested and accepted at the last meeting almost a year ago. The text of Wilson's letter is as follows:

"A group of Stanford alumni have recently suggested to the Stanford student body that the agreement committee of the two universities meet with a view to bringing back athletic competition between the two institutions. The suggestions of the committee were as follows:

"1. That a general disavowal of intent to imply improper conduct on the part of either university in the conduct of its athletic affairs be made by the student executive committees of each university.

"2. That Stanford eliminate freshmen from participation in intercollegiate athletics upon three conditions as follows:

"(a) That the University of California agree to require of athletes the same relative standard of scholarship as that required at Stanford.

"(b) That students from the affiliated colleges be barred from intercollegiate contests with certain modifications.

"(c) That the students of the agricultural campus at Davis be barred from participation in contests with certain modifications.

"Inasmuch as this is practically what the committee agreed upon before the break, it should be comparatively easy for them to arrive at a definite settlement.

Mr. Barrett, chairman of our committee, and all that is needed for an early restoration of athletic relations is a meeting between the two committees.

The letter from Stanford, which was expected by a few intimates who had been busy during vacation, was received with evident feelings of pleasure on the California campus this morning. President Street declared that, beyond doubt, the letter opened the way for a resumption of athletic relations almost at once and that details would probably be perfected in time for Stanford and California to play basketball this spring.

U. C. IS PLEASED

Street expected to announce before the day was over the date on which the agreement committees of the two universities would get together to consider the latest peace overtures. The conditions which Stanford imposes upon California already had been practically accepted by this university in former conferences, he pointed out, and Stanford's new willingness to forego freshman assistance removed the last stumbling block.

The sentiments of the local student body this morning were mirrored in the student daily in which Editor Oakland Nitebook published the following editorial:

"Genuine joy must certainly take possession of the heart of every Californian who reads the letter of President Wilson of Stanford, published in another column. We thank you and admire you for your broad-minded and frank stand, Stanford. We have long been heartily glad that a treaty seems clearly in sight, under which California and Stanford may unite again in good generous sportsmanship."

FIGHTING MINISTER HAS HARD TIME
TO ENLISTTakes Him Sixteen Months to Get From Oakland to England.

Unable to secure a commission in the Canadian expeditionary force, Rev. William Henry Hudson, pioneer of temperance in the British navy, who left Oakland last April determined to make his way to England, has just arrived in Hull from New York after a remarkable journey.

In September, 1914, he sent a telegram from Oakland to the commanding officer at Victoria, B. C., offering his services for the overseas army, referring him to Captain Corbett of H. M. S. Albatross stationed at Esquimaux.

He received a reply stating his name was well known, but that there were no vacancies. With out funds and carrying only his Bible and hymn book and clothing in a military haversack, Rev. Hudson determined to walk from San Francisco to New York to secure passage from there to England.

During his walk across the continent from Oakland he says he met many Englishmen thrown out of employment by the war and left without money and friends. They were given food and shelter at a mission and all wanted to go back and join the army. The British consul said he could do nothing for them. Some of them had been in New Orleans and Galveston and were told to go to the shipping office, but were unsuccessful.

Rev. Hudson arrived in New York in October after a walk of 4200 miles. He was given a berth along with forty others aboard the British steamer Moorish Prince, running from New York to Brest, with Hudson as a passenger.

He was given to understand that he could land at Brest and proceed to England, but was not allowed to leave the ship at the French port, since he carried neither French nor British passports. Although these cost only $2.75, along with the cost of his food and clothing, he was unable to do so.

He finally succeeded in reaching England on board the Wilson liner Marlene.

He is in the Sierra Nevada, however, snow is still falling and the storm has been one of the heaviest in years. A heavy frost was noted this morning throughout the state, but it is believed no damage has been done to the citrus crop. Warlike has been sent out to look out for tomorrow morning's biting frost, and there is a likelihood of the burning of charcoal fires everywhere on the part of the growers.

HAMBURG CHIEF SOUGHT.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—The police searched today for Paul Koenig, the so-called chief of the Hamburg-American line secret service, who is at liberty under $50,000 bail on a federal indictment charging him with conspiracy to blow up the Welland canal.

Garments, Even Cast-Offs, Bring
Smiles to Tiny Faces

In seemingly unending numbers the children of the poor are coming to the top floor of the TRIBUNE, there to be fitted out as well as possible with the warm clothing sent in by big-hearted men and women during the past week. All yesterday, and again today, small boys and girls in charge of kindly school nurses were taken to the Good Fellow Department. There the children exchanged their worn-out shoes, sodden from rain, their torn stockings and tattered clothing for well-measured, warm and sensible apparel.

Many children were taken from the class rooms direct to the TRIBUNE, and when they were examined by the TRIBUNE wardrobe mistress were found to be clad only in rags. Childlike faces were transfused when, a half hour later, the youngsters left the TRIBUNE building, clad better, many of them, than they had ever been in their lives.

MANY THUS CARED FOR.

As many as twenty-five children were being dressed at the same time in the TRIBUNE's wardrobe department this morning. At this rate, of course, it does not take long to deplete the stock on hand, and by nightfall tomorrow what clothing the kind mothers and fathers of Oakland have forwarded will have been completely distributed.

The need is so very great and the trouble to meet it so very little that the TRIBUNE is constrained to ask further aid for the Little Brothers and Sisters during the balance of the week.

Shoes are particularly desirable. Not enough of them can ever be secured to meet the needs of the children brought to the TRIBUNE building by public school nurses. To do that it must have the earnest assistance of its readers.

Enough stockings for a hundred more children are on hand, but underclothes, boys' suits and shoes are indispensable if distress is to be alleviated in appreciable quantity.

Send coats and vests for children ranging in age from 5 to 15 are especially welcome.

Most of the children for whom help is asked come in the only clothes they have. Many are half-clothed, or children whose parents are absolutely unable to care for them.

THE WORK CONTINUES.

All this week the TRIBUNE will endeavor to meet the needs of the children brought to the TRIBUNE building by public school nurses. To do that it must have the earnest assistance of its readers.

BROTHER OF WOMAN
IN SPRING CASE
TO FIGHT"Prevaricator," Says Mrs.
Ecker of Physician, Who Is Complainant.

BERKELEY, Jan. 11.—Eugene I. McGraw declared in Judge Edgar's court this morning that he would fight the battery charge against him by Dr. Harvey P. Charles of the Alcatraz apartments which are run by Mrs. Genevieve L. Ecker, the nurse whom millionaire John H. Spring declared he would like to marry if his wife secured a divorce.

Mrs. Ecker and Spring himself were not in court this morning when Mrs. Ecker's brother appeared with his attorney, Elmer Nichols, to answer the physician's charge. McGraw pleaded not guilty and demanded trial, but did not insist upon having a jury. His case was set for hearing at 2 o'clock, January 13.

Dr. Charles claimed that he was struck eight times with distinct force by young McGraw while attempting to move his belongings from the apartment. The reason for the disturbance, according to Mrs. Ecker, was the doctor's attempting to move without either giving her notice or paying the customary month's rent in advance. She declares Spring merely attempted to explain to Dr. Charles the rights and wrongs of the case.

"COULDN'T STAND NOTORIETY."

"I couldn't stand the notoriety attached to the building since Spring's and Mrs. Ecker's friendship became known," said Dr. Charles. "The front door of the apartments on Adeline street was always locked and my patients actually could not get upstairs to my office without coming around on Alcatraz avenue and using the trades people's entrance."

"When I was in the hallway, Mrs. Ecker came after me and tried to make me pay another month's rent, and I wouldn't stand for it. Spring himself helped her out."

"Finally when I got my belongings on a wagon, young McGraw, her brother, who is employed in a grocery store downstairs, threw some of the things off, and broke the frame of my diploma. When I protested, he hit me eight times, but, fortunately, I was not seriously hurt."

Mrs. Ecker says Dr. Charles is a prevaricator.

"He is a rude person," she said. "His patients haven't been kept out of the building because he has none. He was two months behind in his rent, and I made him pay up. Mr. Spring simply happened to be in the building and came to my assistance."

Wife Likes Feathers, Is Smuggler's Plea

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—"My wife comes from New York and she likes fine feathers." This was the explanation given by Dan Patagoos, freeman on the steamer Bonanza, today when asked why he had taken part in the smuggling ashore of two birds of Paradise plumes. He pleaded guilty and was fined $50.

P. O. Kuonius, a mess boy to whom Patagoos had given the plumes and who was caught with them concealed under his sweater by customs inspectors, yesterday demanded a jury trial, but when he saw Patagoos go free with his fine paid, quickly changed his mind. He rushed into Judge Dooling's court, demanding similar treatment.

"I thought you would come back," declared the judge, as he pronounced judgment similar to that meted out to the other.

Ice on Merritt
Fools the DucksWith Irritable Quacks
Voice Resentment

Lake Merritt was frozen over this morning—over by the Piedmont baths—not the whole lake but enough of it to attract the attention of "old residents" and to fool a flock of "Cans" and Mallards that each morning paddle into the cove along Harrison boulevard to pick up their breakfast. They went skating for a change today.

Even a duck can look silly. Several of them did when after a short flight they alighted on the ice instead of the water. A large crowd gathered and after while a policeman appeared to find out if there had been any trouble. He said he feared that some one had committed suicide or been drowned.

An automobile honked along and stopped to test the thickness. He found out that a duck can skate where a boy cannot and get his feet wet.

About that time "Old Resident" offered a solution of the phenomenon. He remembered that a little creek of fresh water flows into the north arm of the lake at that point and that an outgoing tide at the right point of the thermometer left the water there practically fresh.

So that's how the ducks were fooled and why the people gathered in the early forenoon chill by Lake Merritt.

Lower Rates Aid
to Manufacturing

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—In order to stimulate the building of manganese and chrome ore, largely used in the manufacture of war munitions, the Southern Pacific Company this morning announced a reduction in freight rates on these commodities. A rate of 5 cents per hundred in carload lots from California points to the section east of Chicago and west of the Atlantic seaboard was fixed.

The old rate varied between 68 and 75 cents. At the same time the rate on trees or wooden nails used on this coast used in the manufacture of wood-boring ships, was reduced by almost half. The rate from the Atlantic coast to California was fixed at $1 instead of $1.50 per hundred pounds.

"I believe that these reductions will be an aid to California," said G. W. Loebe, freight traffic manager of the Southern Pacific this morning. "I believe that the mining of manganese and chrome and that California will get her share of the business consequence of the low rates to be put in force."

Vendors of Liquor to Indians Are Sentenced

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—That Uncle Sam intends to be lenient with defendants who plead guilty, thus saving the government from the expense of jury trials was indicated by a recent judgment today in mistrial cases against alleged offenders. All were charged with selling liquor to Indians at Colusa. Charles T. Class, a saloon keeper, and Frank Morgan, a bartender, who were tried, were given 60 days and a fine of $200, the minimum punishment under the new statute. Cy Lane and John A. Osterley, bartenders, who pleaded guilty, were sentenced under the old statute, receiving only one day and a $50 fine.

Harry Spense Prior to Attack

Harry Spense, arrested last night after he had taken several shots at Patrolman D. E. Gillette, is being held pending an investigation of his past record and what he was doing armed with a loaded revolver lurking under the windows of a home at Fourteenth and Brush streets. He will probably be charged with assault with a deadly weapon on a complaint to be sworn to by Gillette.

Gillette was not more than ten paces away from Spense when he fired the first shot. The patrolman did not draw his own weapon, but ran at his assailant.

"Keep off," Spense shouted at Gillette. The patrolman did not halt and Spense fired again. When Gillette was within a few feet of Spense the man clicked the trigger twice, but the weapon failed to discharge, saving Gillette's life.

Gillette closed with Spense and the two rolled across the sidewalk. Special Policeman Rollio Carlick had heard the shots and ran to the aid of Gillette. He assisted in arresting Spense, and disarming him. Spense was taken to the city prison, where he refused to make any explanation of his acts.

Three Hundred Added to the Student Body for Term.

BERKELEY, Jan. 11.—With almost 500 of them more than last year, the students of the University of California attended their first classes in the new semester this morning. According to figures given out by the recorder, there is a gain to date over the second day of college a year ago of 297 students and this gain is expected to be increased in subsequent registration.

Recorder James Sutton gave out this morning the following figures on registration for the opening day: Graduates, 688; undergraduates, 4,210. Total, 4,898. Total, January, 1915, 4,601. Gain in year, 297.

Captain Bain Named to Important Place

BERKELEY, Jan. 11.—Captain Robert Bain of 1520 Arch street, has been appointed inspector of hotels and boilers for the northwest district with headquarters at Seattle following his passage with excellent marks of the civil service examination. Captain Bain has been selected to accept this position instead of being restored to the transport service where he would soon have been appointed commander of a ship.

Captain Bain was for many years in the transport service and was on the bridge of the Dix when she struck the floating object off the Philippine coast some months ago. An investigation resulted in the suspension of her commander from the service. Bain, however, retained his position and was later restored to the transport service where he was appointed commander of a ship.

The accident to the Dix occurred in September, 1914, 300 miles from Manila. It was alleged against Bain that he had been off duty at the time of the collision. Bain, however, maintained that he was on duty and that the collision was the result of a defect in the ship's machinery. Bain was later restored to the transport service and was appointed commander of a ship.

MANY CASES OF RHEUMATISM NOW

Says We Must Keep Feet Dry, Avoid Exposure and Eat Less Meat.

"Stay off the damp ground, avoid exposure, keep feet dry, at least, drink lots of water and above all take a spoonful of salts occasionally to keep down uric acid."

Rheumatism is caused by poisonous toxin, called uric acid, which is generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and to get it out in the urine. The pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity.

ELLIOTT GOING EAST TOMORROW; MAY LAND NESS

Health and Ball Players Join Mission of the Oakland Boss.

Harold "Rowdy" Elliott, manager of the Oakland Baseball Club, will go East tomorrow morning, and rumor has it that he has been given authority to conclude negotiations at Chicago with one or two players whom the club needs to complete its preparations for the 1916 season. Elliott will stop first at Hot Springs, Arkansas, a famous health resort for ball players, and will then get into prime condition. He has been taking good care of himself this winter, and the task of hardening his muscles and strengthening his mind will not be a difficult one. From Hot Springs he will go on to Chicago. Possibly Elliott's visit may be for the purpose of learning the status of Jimmie Johnston, manager of the New York Yankees, and also of the Oakland club. The Oakland club today sent contracts to three men whom it desires to see among the early arrivals at Boyes Springs. Pitchers Charlie Trout and Ray Boyd, and infielder Bobby Davis were the men to whom contracts were dispatched.

"Y" BOWLERS USE THE WIRELESS
VALLEJO, Jan. 11.—Bowling by wireless is the latest innovation started by the Army and Navy. M. C. A. organizations on the Pacific coast and at Honolulu. Under this arrangement, the Valley M. C. A. team at Honolulu, although the clubs would be thousands of miles apart, the opposing teams would play on their own alleys and then sending the score to their opponents by means of the wireless.

BASEBALL MERGER IS GIVEN O. K.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—The merger which wiped the Federal league out of existence, and combined the major league baseball several cities which held franchises in the Federal league, was not in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

U. C. ADDS OCCIDENTAL TO 1916 SCHEDULE
The University of California added another football game to its 1916 schedule when the Occidental college team, champions of the Pacific coast, was scheduled to meet the Bears on the Berkeley gridiron on October 28. The Occidental team was easily defeated in the 1915 game, and played a high brand of football. They should give the Bears a fierce tussle.

FRANKIE BURNS IS HELD TO DRAW
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 11.—Oto (Young) Wallace, Milwaukee heavyweight, and Frankie Burns, Oakland, Cal., fought their first rounds here last night in a draw. Burns dropped his opponent in the first round, but Wallace, who is an instant and more than evened the score in the next two rounds, which he won by wide margins. Both were mixing furiously in the final bout.

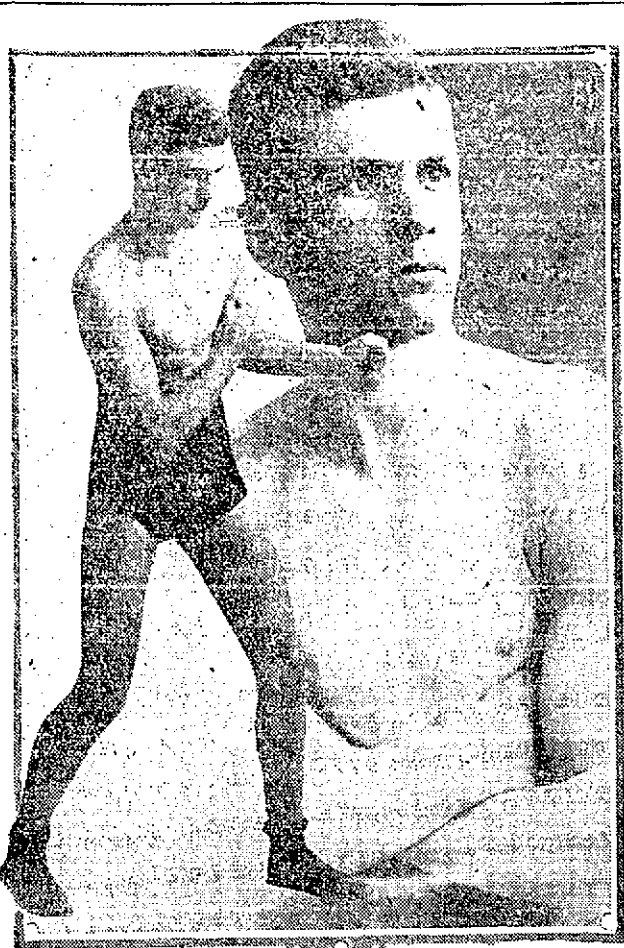

ANDREWS SPORT ANNUAL DUTY.
An copy of Tom Andrews' World's Annual Sporting Record Book for 1916 has just been received, with the compliments of the publisher, Mr. Andrews. The book contains a complete record of every prominent boxer before the public and the pictures of the winners of the various classes are included in this book.

A STIMULANT.
As an incentive for more men to participate in intercollegiate athletics at the University of Wisconsin, A. P. Nelson, president of the board of regents, has donated a $500 bronze trophy to the university to be awarded each year to the team that scores the most points in athletic competition. This gift is expected to increase Wisconsin's athletic activities 20 percent, 60 percent of the students now taking part in various sports.

GOLF DEAD.
Golf is temporarily dead in England, and a British expert writes that one can go from one end of London to the other and not find a single green in progress. The same, he says, applies to Scotland, the home of the ancient game. English manufacturers are facing ruin because of the unpopularity of the game and are making strenuous efforts to sell supplies to America.

BOWLING
The Herolds No. 2 won two games out of three from the Classy Glancers of the Oakland Bowling Club last night in the 11 class of the San Francisco and Suburban Bowling Association last night. The scores were as follows: The Herolds won by a score of 115 to 100. The Classy Glancers won by a score of 115 to 100.

Arrousey Must Be at Best Malone in Grand Fettle

JOHNNY ARROUSEY, LOS ANGELES FEATHERWEIGHT FIGHTER, WHO WILL HAVE HIS HANDS FULL TOMORROW NIGHT WHEN HE TAKLES FRANKIE MALONE, THE WATTS TRACT HARP.

Featherweights Primed for Hard Bout at West Oakland
Interest in the bout which will bring Johnny Arrousey and Frankie Malone, star featherweights, together tomorrow night at the West Oakland Club, is on the increase and the consensus of opinion is that the largest crowd that ever packed the Eighth and Pine street arena will witness the battle between the two rivals. Promoter Tommy Simpson of the West Oakland club announces that the tickets have been going as fast as hot mittens in Labrador, and already the entire reserved seat section is sold out. "Everything points to a packed house," says Simpson. "I expect a crowd of over 3500 to witness the bouts."

Malone has good chance.
On the last showing of the two, Malone has an excellent chance of winning tomorrow night. He has two good hands, while Arrousey only has one, while the possession of the left hand is a great advantage. Malone is a hard mark for a straight left hand. Arrousey found that out the last time he fought Malone, a long while ago. He could score with his left as easily as he did against Tamm, but before the bout had progressed he was surprised to find Malone's left hand so good. As the bout progressed, Arrousey's left hand became a real effect.

Arrousey, it is hinted, is figuring on a different style of battle from the last one. He is going to make Malone come to him, let the little Irishman force the going, and then deal him with a series of hooks. Johnny has been developing a hook which has nearly reached the perfection point and is expected to find Malone an easy mark for it.

Malone will conclude their training today. Malone will go on the road in the morning and will hammer up by shadow boxing and punching the bag in the afternoon. He will engage in a stiff workout, first boxing several rounds with Jimmy West and then taking on another one of his sparring partners. He has trained hard and faithfully for his bout and will have no excuses to offer if he loses Sunday in capturing his scalp tomorrow night.

Edwards vs. Morton.
Frankie Edwards and Puggy Morton, lightweights, who tangle in the first spot on the card, will have a hard fight. The main event class if either wins tomorrow night, Edwards has been away from the game a long while. Whether he is the same old Frankie Edwards of old, with his clever ducking, side stepping and footwork, or whether he has gone up against Morton, who is a genuine tough nut, Morton has not many good boys and things point to a hard fight in disposing of the East Coast effort.

Twice Told Tales of the Diamond
One of the gems of the recently ended baseball year is Bill Phillips, a first pitcher of the St. Louis Browns, and later a member of the Federal league manager. When the Federals started Bill was a free agent. He took the management of the Federals and was a success. He was the cheapest club in the league each year. When his club got into a run Bill was named. He is an excellent manager, but seems to have no chance of landing a big league while Joe Tinker and others who jumped reserve clauses are back in the grandstands of organized baseball and placed in high positions.

FEVER FOR TRACK MEETS SPREADING OVER THE NATION

Remarkable Activity Reported by A. A. U. Officials for Season of 1916.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—Reports received at the national headquarters of the Amateur Athletic Union in this city indicate a remarkable season of activity on both indoor and outdoor tracks during the coming year. Applications for sanction are being received from all parts of the country, and it is predicted that this will witness more track meets than ever before, and more than any previous year in the history of the Union.

Among the more important meets, with the date and place for the holding of the contests, are the following: Illinois A. C., Chicago, Jan. 20; Milwaukee A. C., Milwaukee, Jan. 20; New York A. C., New York, Jan. 20; Boston A. C., Boston, Jan. 20; Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Feb. 10; Georgetown University, Washington, Feb. 10; Intercollegiate A. A. U., Feb. 10; New York A. C., New York, March 10; St. Louis A. C., St. Louis, March 10; Evansville, Ind., March 10; Senior A. A. U. championships, Indianapolis, March 10; Missouri A. A. U., St. Louis, March 10.

Following these meets and a host of minor games will come the dual outdoor track meets between the college teams of all parts of the states. April, May and the early portion of June will witness hundreds of these dual and triangular competitions, all leading up to the final championship games of the various sections of the country. Not satisfied with the national tests of speed and strength, the promoters of the Amateur Athletic Union are planning to invade territory far removed from their own campus, and these inter-sectional tests of speed and strength promise to be one of the most interesting features of the coming season.

From being watched with just a glimmer of interest, track meets are now being watched with a keen interest. The Amateur Athletic Union is now a household word, and the sport is now a household word. The Amateur Athletic Union is now a household word, and the sport is now a household word. The Amateur Athletic Union is now a household word, and the sport is now a household word.

Gardner can always sell flour.
"Rube" Gardner, declared to be the most dangerous hitter the Coast League has ever monkeyed with, need never worry anything happens that should compel him to desert baseball. He has a steady job always waiting for him with a well known flour concern at El Centro in the Imperial valley. The league down here is all right, but Rube is still regarded as a necessary citizen of the community. Rube admits responsibility for the destruction of the league. His team only lost two out of fourteen games, the result being that all the other teams got sore and quit playing. Rube is a flour man. He is selling flour by the ton. Some flour.

Syracuse loses its coach.
SYRACUSE, N. Y., Jan. 10.—Head Coach Frank J. O'Neill brought grief to the students of the University of Syracuse here today when he announced that he would not return to coach the Orange football team in 1916. His resignation was made it impossible to return next season. O'Neill has been a service at Syracuse and has built up a wonderful football team while here. Only Syracuse over O'Neill, writes the Occidental College and other crack outfits.

Vollmer makes new record.
NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—Herbert Vollmer, crack swimmer of the New York Athletic Club, last night negotiated 500 yards in the New York Athletic Club tank in 1:23 4-5, and it is said, will lay claim to a new world's record. The record for that distance established by C. M. Daniels, in England, in 1905, was 1:25 2-5.

"Tux" is the happy smoke. It just packs the smoker's calendar so plumb full of fragrant delight that a gloomy day can't crowd itself in edgewise. That mild, soothing taste of "Tux" has introduced many a man to the joy of pipe-smoking and a regular, unending procession of happy days.

MARCUS J. WRIGHT
Famous
Ex-Confederate General

"Owing to its mild, sweet flavor, Tuxedo is superior to all other tobaccos. I enjoy smoking it immensely and recommend it to all smokers."

By far the most pleasant pipe-smoke in the world is Tuxedo. Think of the supreme satisfaction of being able to smoke your pipe all day, and day after day, without a particle of discomfort! You can do it with Tuxedo—because Tuxedo is made wonderfully mild and absolutely biteless by the original "Tuxedo Process."

That process is what makes Tuxedo different from any other tobacco made. Others have tried to imitate it, but never successfully.

Just try Tuxedo for a week and you'll smoke it ever after.

SUNDAY CONCERTS TO BE CONTINUED

Selections From "Faust" to Be Sung at the Second of Series.

Encouraged by the large attendance at the opening "pop" symphony concert, given at the municipal auditorium Sunday afternoon, Paul Steinhardt, the well-known conductor, is convinced that the east bay music lovers will welcome a series of these concerts throughout the winter months and he feels that at least ten concerts will be given. The second concert will be given next Sunday, with the same number of orchestral selections as given last Sunday and selections from the opera, "Faust".

The innovation for the first time on the Pacific coast of the receding of operatic songs by well-known vocalists with the symphony numbers promises to be a real inspiration and to make musical history in the west. Because of the heavy demand for seats at the opening concert, it has been decided to reserve 500 seats for next Sunday's concert.

LILLIAN RUSSELL THERE.

Melaine Bresner, late of the Madrid Grand Opera company, who sang the title role in "Aida," will appear again next Sunday as will Miss Lucy Van Der Mark, the famous soprano. The name of the male singer has not yet been announced. One of the most interested listeners at the first concert was Lillian Russell, the theatrical star.

Miss Russell congratulated Paul Steinhardt after the program and refused to believe that this was a mere musical concert, saying that in the rendition of the difficult numbers the big orchestra of fifty musicians played perfectly.

"Oakland is a music loving city without question," said Miss Russell. "This splendid audience attests that your people will come to hear good music and this kind of support it will not be long before Oakland is known far and wide as a musical center."

Will Train Teachers for Sabbath Day Work

Training classes for Sunday school workers will begin for the spring term at the Young Women's Christian Association in Alameda on February 5 for a big review and dance. Members of the High School and fourth Thursday of the month at 2:45 p. m. Sunday school lessons and methods for various departments will be discussed. At 3:30 o'clock the teacher training class will meet and "Training for Service" will be taught by Mrs. T. F. Jennings under the leadership of the president, Miss Maudie Hunt.

Motion Picture Stars to Meet at Alameda

Headed by Evelyn Selbie, formerly leading lady for the Essanay company, "movie stars" will gather at Palm Beach in Alameda on February 5 for a big review and dance. Members of the High School and fourth Thursday of the month at 2:45 p. m. Sunday school lessons and methods for various departments will be discussed.
